Britain, U.S. in Deadlock Over Mail Seizures

English Marines

Bermuda May be Eliminated as Stop for Clipper Planes

Washington —(P)—Senators critical of British censorship of United States airmail at Bermuda—a censorship enforced in one instance by armed marines—reinforced their protests today with new demands for prohibiting American planes from landing at Bermuda.

Senator Truman (D-Mo.) proposed that flights to the island be stopped and said also that English planes should be barred from landing in the United States.

Senator Clark (D-Mo.) said latest disclosures bearing on the situation "only strengthen my view that we should prohibit all planes from landing at Bermuda. Senator Schweikert (D-Wash.) asserted that "if England doesn't watch out, she will bring about a condition of definite antagonism to herself."

Truman said that "if we took a firm stand, stopped the clipper from running and refused to let them (the British) land their ships in this country, they would stop interfering with our mails."

Senator Nye (R-Ind.) said he thought the use of armed marines showed "a nice, friendly attitude toward a would-be ally."

"If the other side had done it, I know where we would be today," he observed.

Senator Van Nuys (D-Ind.) declared that "it's just another step to provoke us and edge us into another world war."

Washington —(P)—A virtual deadlock over censorship of American mails has developed between the state department and Great Britain and France, with one incident after another helping complicate the situation.

It was learned last night that British marines with fixed bayonets brought about the first seizure of trans-Atlantic airmail at Bermuda on Jan. 18.

Captain Charles A. Lorber of Baltimore, commanding a Pan-American Airways plane flying between the United States and Lisbon, had refused to surrender the mail to British censors until the show of armed force was made.

Authoritative sources at London attributed the incident to a conflict of personalities, and added: "You can be certain it won't happen again."

Censorship Continues

That reference apparently was to the display of bayonets, for despite a prompt protest by United States officials, censorship of airmail has continued at Bermuda. Last week 1,970 pounds of American mail were taken off one clipper ship.

Secretary Hull hinted at a recent press conference that if the practice did not cease, Bermuda might be passed up as a clipper stop.

Mail carried from the United States by boat also is undergoing allied examination. Mail for Mediterranean countries is being censored at Gibraltar and Marseilles, for Scandinavian nations at Kirkwall, Scotland, and for Netherlands ports at Weymouth, England. Haiti, Palestine, is a censorship point for the Near East.

British Delay Ship

It is understood that there are other censorship headquarters in Britain and France, and that mails destined for the United States are also censored at the cities.

When the United States liner Manhattan arrived at New York last night from Italy, her captain said that the British removed 539 sacks of mail at Gibraltar on the east-bound trip and held the ship 27 hours. On the return voyage she was held nine hours.

A report from the Canadian postal administration has said that some mail for the United States would be censored.

The American government admits the right of a belligerent to take such articles from the American mails if the ship or plane carrying them puts into a British port voluntarily. The state department has tried to ease the way for the trans-Atlantic airmail by ruling that parcels post and certain types of checks, money orders, etc., would not be accepted in the airmail to Europe.

3 Confess Kidnaping
Which Netted $2.75

Red Wing, Minn. —(P)—County Attorney Milton I. Holst said last night three young men, one a bridegroom and prospective father, had confessed to a kidnaping which netted them $2.75 and the prospect of terms up to 40 years in prison for each.

Stanley Allen, 21, Wabasha, Minn., bridegroom of five months, Stanley Bateman, 21, South St. Paul, Minn., CCC enrollee, and Alfred Tyler, 21, Plainview, Minn., confessed, Holst said, to the abduction, slugging and robbery of Kazimir Pelakovich, 56, tannery worker here, last Friday.

Tyler first admitted the crime. Holst declared, confirming the victim's story that he was taken to a point near Hacer, Wis., three miles east of here, and slugged and robbed.

Swedish Forces
Told to Fire on Military Planes

Experts Continue Investigation of Air Raid On Village

Stockholm —(P)—Swedish military authorities, it was announced today, have issued new instructions to all anti-aircraft units to fire on any military planes flying over Swedish territory.

The orders followed the bombing of Pajala by Soviet Russian planes yesterday which brought indignant demands in the Swedish press for a protest to Moscow be followed by insistence on compensation and assurances against a repetition.

Military experts continued investigations of the bombing.

Under government orders to protest yesterday's aerial bombardment of the town five miles from the Finnish border, Wilhelm Assarsson, minister to Moscow, was received at the Kremlin late yesterday by the Russian premier-foreign commissar, Vyacheslav Molotov.

"Sweden never was the object of such serious violation of her neutrality either during the last war or the present one," declared the conservative newspaper, Svenska Dabladet.

"If the bombing was unintentional, steps must be taken to avoid repetition of such mistakes."

No injuries to any of the 3,000 residents of Pajala were reported, but a number of buildings were demolished. Townsfolk said 24 bombs were explosive and 100 others of an incendiary type.

Rumania Speeds
Military Efforts

German Expert to Seek Showdown Next Week On Oil Question

Bucharest —(P)—Rumania ordered her already large military preparations speeded up today following authoritative reports that Germany was challenging the government's ban on export of aviation gasoline to the reich.

Dr. Karl Clodius, German economic expert, is expected here Monday for showdown conversations to insist on full delivery of Germany's 1940 quota of oil and oil products. Meanwhile, the government ordered many of 200,000 reservists originally called for March 1 to start reporting immediately to concentration centers, it was learned.

Effective March 1, Rumania will have 1,600,000 men under arms—virtually general mobilization without being so labelled.

Railways now are jammed with reservists moving toward frontiers and with long trainloads of tanks, armored cars and artillery.

The arrival of Dr. Clodius will coincide with the start of Rumanian trade conversations here with Italy, understood also to be seeking a share of this country's oil exports.

Head of Composers
Society Is Facing
Warrant in Arizona

Misoula, Mont. —(P)—County Attorney Edward T. Dussault said today a telegraphic warrant had been sent to Phoenix, Ariz., for the arrest of Gene Buck, president of the American Society of Composers, Authors and Publishers.

The formal warrant, sent by air mail, charges Buck with attempted extortion, a felony, attempt to obtain money under false pretenses and conspiracy to extort, misdemeanors.

Dussault said, "the warrant is the same as that issued here for Buck and other officers of ASCAP, which authorities in New York declined to serve."

"The charges against Buck and others in ASCAP, is based on a request they sent to Montana radio stations, theaters, particularly in Misoula, and others by registered mail that their licenses to play music owned by ASCAP, would be revoked unless specified payments of money were made."

"We claim ASCAP does not own 95 per cent of the music they claim they own or control by assignment."

"This has nothing to do with a civil action brought against A.S.C.A.P. in district court here by Montana radio stations."

Four Turkish Villages
Leveled by Earthquakes

Istanbul —(P)—Four villages in the Kasari region of Turkey were reported today to have been leveled by a series of continuing earth shocks with a loss of 70 lives and more than 50 persons injured.

Eighteen quakes were felt in succession late yesterday in and around the town of Kasari in central Anatolia, Asiatic Turkey, and tombors were reported continuing at noon today.

Tens of thousands of cattle were said to have perished in the devastation of the villages and in stampedes caused by the shocks.

JONES HAPPY AFTER VICTORY

Sam H. Jones and his wife are shown here smiling happily in New Orleans after looking over returns that gave Jones, a St. Charles, La., attorney, a victory over Governor Earl K. Long in the Democratic primary runoff election for the Louisiana gubernatorial nomination. Jones said he planned a "rehabilitation of Louisiana."

Dahl and 7 Other American Prisoners in Spanish Civil War are Reported Liberated

Madrid —(P)—The United States embassy announced today that the last eight American citizens held as Spanish civil war prisoners, including Harold E. Dahl, Champaign, Ill., flier had been released and would start soon for home.

Dahl and two of the Americans, Clarence Alvie Blair of Red Granite, Wis., and Cohn Haber of New York City, already are at Seattle. They are to sail for New York aboard the Exiria tomorrow.

The release of these last prisoners who had fought for the defeated republican government brought to an end a long diplomatic tussle in which the United States state department had sought their freedom.

Dahl, who had been in custody since he parachuted to earth behind Nationalist Generalissimo Franco's lines on July 12, 1937, became the most widely-known American prisoner of the Spanish war as a result of his attractive blond wife's efforts to have him freed.

Dahl originally was marked for execution, but he was spared from this penalty after Mrs. Dahl, a singer, sent a letter to General Franco asking clemency. She enclosed a photograph of herself.

The flier, however, remained a prisoner. Mrs. Dahl returned to the United States alone last November and only last Jan. 9 won a new promise of help from the state department.

2 German Planes Downed by British

Nazi Aviators Raid Shipping on East Coast Of England

London —(P)—Two German warplanes were shot down by British fighters today, the air ministry announced, as Nazi aviators raided Britain's east coast for the second time in three days, drawing machine gun fire from several little trawlers which they attempted to attack.

The fire from the trawlers gave concrete form to the warning last week by Winston Churchill, first lord of the admiralty, that all British vessels plying the North sea waters henceforth would be armed for protection against German bombing and machine gunning from the air.

The downing of the two Nazi planes today brought the total German aircraft lost in such raids to at least 50, according to the British. The British estimated the total value of the lost German planes at more than $1,000,000 (about $4,000,000).

$148,291 Available to Counties for Relief

Madison —(P)—County agencies will have $148,291 available from state funds for relief purposes during March.

This sum was allotted yesterday by the state emergency board, which makes its appropriations on a monthly basis. The total set aside for February relief was $189,466.

Charles McKown, financial secretary of Governor Heil, has estimated the board would provide $650,000 more until next January when a new legislature will be in session.

The board authorized the state welfare department to use $5,000 from the prison industries revolving fund for completion of a new building to house the laundry at Waupun prison.

Other allotments voted were: $13,435 for a WPA "white collar" project at the University of Wisconsin to be supplemented with $204,000 of federal funds; salary increases for five state employees totaling $37,500 monthly; $700 to the tax department to cover traveling expense and witness fees in the Omaha railroad valuation case.

Three Major Problems of Today are Emphasized as 'Farewell Address' Is Read

Washington —(P)—George Washington's 144-year-old "farewell address," read to the house today in the traditional observance of the first president's birthday anniversary, touched on at least three topics currently before the nation—trade, foreign alliances and the third term.

The house set aside its legislative tasks for the day to hear one of its oldest Republican members, Representative Frank Crowther of New York, read the historic document.

Public galleries were well filled, but the diplomatic gallery was vacant although Representative Sweeney (D-Ohio) had invited Lord Lothian, the British ambassador to attend. Sweeney said that in view of the presence of British agents in this country "seeking to embroil our

Soviet Attack Near Kamara Is Repulsed

First Finnish Admission Of Fighting in Neighborhood

2,000 REDS SLAIN

Two More Classes are Summoned to Mobilization Centers

Helsinki —(P)—A red army attack near the Kamara railway station, a communication center 12 miles southeast of Viipuri on the Karelian isthmus, was repulsed, the Finnish high command reported today.

The Russians lost 2,000 dead in continued fighting at Taipale, at the eastern end of the isthmus defense line, the communique declared.

Today's was the first admission by the Finns that fighting had reached the neighborhood of Kamara, although the Russians previously had reported their forces driving through that station on the main isthmus railway to Viipuri.

Finland called the classes of 1891 and 1895—men 44 to 46 years old—to report to mobilization centers.

The three preceding classes were mobilized last week.

In continued aerial activity over the war zone, the Finns said several Russian formations with as many as 50 planes each had been sighted.

The Soviet Russian strategy of smashing at both extremities of the Mannerheim line while maintaining active pressure along its whole length, emphasized today the Finnish problem of defense with thin spread forces everywhere numerically inferior.

After concentrating near the western end of the line on the Karelian isthmus and forcing Finnish withdrawal to new positions, the red army was reported to have thrown two divisions (apparently 30,000 to 35,000 men) against the Taipale sector, eastern terminus of the fortified zone.

The Finns said that despite strong artillery and aircraft support, the attackers were hurled back, and Turn to page 11 col. 7

Sees Threat to Liberties in U.S.

Michigan Chief Justice Fears 'Departure From Fundamentals'

Chicago —(P)—Chief Justice George E. Bushnell of the Supreme Court of Michigan asserted today that "departure from constitutional fundamentals will insidiously but surely undermine the civil liberties guaranteed by the bill of rights."

He made the assertion in a prepared address to the National Fraternal Congress of America.

"Proposals are frequently advanced," he said, "to abridge the jurisdiction and power of courts, both state and federal. There seems to be an ever increasing temptation for government to confront individuals engaged in legitimate business with the fiat: 'You can do that.'"

"If and when such doctrines prevail in this country as the rule and not the exception, it will mark the end of the heritage handed down to us by Washington, Madison, Jefferson and the other patriots who gave us constitutional government."

He said it was time to call a halt to "constitutional heresies before the political, economic and fiscal welfare of the country is endangered. For all such proposals tend to the extension of bureaucracy, mounting deficits and higher taxation."

Tavernkeeper Admits He Wounded His Wife

Barron, Wis. —(P)—District Attorney L. C. Youngman said today that Walter Stahl, 42-year-old Campina tavernkeeper, had admitted shooting and wounding his wife, Dorothy.

Youngman said he would issue a warrant against Stahl today, and that Stahl probably would be given a preliminary hearing tomorrow.

Mrs. Stahl, wounded in the cheek, left arm and shoulder, was reported in fair condition today at a Rice hospital.

County Board Assures Building Of New Courthouse

Prosecutor in Detroit and 18 Others Facing Charges Of Gambling Conspiracy

Plans Drawn

Stone Structure, Costing About $525,000, to Face Walnut Street

The Outagamie county board gave the courthouse building project the "go ahead" signal yesterday afternoon by defeating, 30 to 23, a proposal to place the matter before the people at a spring referendum.

All of which means that the board is right back where it was on Nov. 21 of last year when the supervisors, by a 29 to 24 vote, decided to build the new courthouse, using a $385,000 bond issue financed over a 10-year period and the $140,000 in the courthouse trust fund.

About a month after approving the project, 29 supervisors signed a petition demanding a special session of the board to consider a referendum. At its January session, the board decided to defer action until the present meeting.

Raymond N. LeVe, Appleton architect named to design the structure by the building committee, yesterday gave the supervisors a detailed description, both in drawings and words, of the courthouse. The 3-story stone structure, with a "penthouse" jail atop, will face Walnut street.

The 30 supervisors who voted against the resolution for the referendum, thereby clearing the way for the new courthouse, are as follows: Floyd Acheson, Sixteenth ward, Appleton; John W. Bauer, Eighteenth ward, Appleton; Louis Bonini, Second ward, Appleton; J. B. Delbridge, Second ward, Kaukauna; Peter N. Diny, Ninth ward, Appleton; Louis J. Faust, First ward, Kaukauna.

Wichmann, Fourteenth ward, Appleton; Martin Williams, Combined Locks; A. W. Zerbel, Eighth ward, Appleton.

Those who voted in favor of placing the matter before the people in a spring referendum were as follows: Leo Black, Maple Creek; Walter A. Blake, Cleco; Fred Blohm, Osborn; John Bottenschick, Dale; W. B. Brown, Hortonville; William Conlon, Deer Creek; Ed Conrad, Boynton; Miles P. ### Large Insurance Policies May be Clue in Mystery

Total of $150,000 Taken Out on Life of Man Who Was Assaulted

New York —(P)—Investigators had newly discovered insurance policies totaling $150,000—paid for by a self-insured art dealer on the life of his business associate—to consider today in their latest move to clear the mystery of the art galleries.

Discovery of the valuable policies provided the authorities with a tentative motive for the all-but-fatal attack last Monday on Milton B. Logan, art gallery president, in a fantastic auto ride shortly before John T. Geery, a fellow executive, shot himself in his suburban home.

A third man, John Poggi, brawny news dealer, is being held without bail on a charge of suspicion of felonious assault in connection with the attack.

Out of a mass of conflicting charges and theories police labeled these as "facts":

Faced Indictment

Logan, president of the world-famous American Art association—Anderson Galleries, Inc., until his bankruptcy last August, and Geery, secretary-treasurer, were under indictment for larceny—accused of withholding some $65,000 from clients.

Last June, the district attorney's office reported, Geery took out the insurance policies on Logan's life naming himself as beneficiary while seeking to negotiate the sale of $300,000 worth of art treasures of the republic of China. Geery's plan, police said, was to dispose of Chinese masterpieces for Chung Kai-Shek, the Chinese national generalissimo.

Assistant District Attorney Robert Thayer said there was "bad blood" between the men.

On Monday night Logan was assaulted with a piece of lead pipe while driving in an automobile with Geery at the wheel and Poggi or the rear seat.

Slayer of Girl Will Be Blind Permanently

Milwaukee —(P)—Harry S. Christiansen, 22, charged with first degree murder in the slaying of Miss Mildred Beil, a nurse, will recover from self-inflicted wounds but will be blind permanently, Detective Captain Adolph Kraemer was advised today by detectives who are guarding the youth at a hospital.

Dr. S. G. Higgins, an eye specialist attending Christiansen, reported that a bullet fired into the temple, after the slaying of Miss Beil in a drugstore booth Feb. 5, had affected sight of both eyes.

Detectives also told Captain Kraemer that Christiansen apparently had no recollection of the shooting and is under the impression he was injured in a manufacturing plant where he formerly worked.

Physicians said it would be several weeks before Christiansen could leave the hospital.

Police reported that the shooting of Miss Beil was the result of her rejection of the youth's marriage proposals.

Superior Will Vote on Change in Government

Superior —(P)—Superior citizens will vote April 2 on the question of retaining the aldermanic form of city government.

The city council authorized putting the question on the ballot after receiving a petition signed by more than 400 persons.

The council also gave approval for a referendum on the question of city purchase of public utilities.

NEW DALAI LAMA

Chinese officials announced at Chungking that Lingerh Lamutan, chu (above), six-year-old chubby, button-eyed boy, had been selected to be enthroned as the 14th Dalai Lama of Tibet. He is said to have been born at the exact moment the 13th Dalai Lama died.

The 30 supervisors who voted against the resolution for the referendum, thereby clearing the way for the new courthouse, are as follows: Floyd Acheson, Sixteenth ward, Appleton; John W. Bauer, Eighteenth ward, Appleton; Louis Bonini, Second ward, Appleton; J. B. Delbridge, Second ward, Kaukauna; Peter N. Diny, Ninth ward, Appleton; Louis J. Faust, First ward, Kaukauna.

Progressive Leader Takes Issue With LaCrosse Parley Keynote

Madison — The keynote speech of Robert Bassett of Green Bay at the LaCrosse state Republican convention Monday scoring the New Deal and LaFolletteism in Wisconsin drew a prompt and sharply phrased retort from Progressive headquarters here yesterday.

A statement signed by J. K. Kyle of Whitewater, head of the Progressive state central committee, declared that "the hymns of hate chanted at the Republican waiting hall in LaCrosse show how politically bankrupt the leadership of the Republican party in Wisconsin really is."

Kyle denied Bassett's claim that the Republican state administration had increased old age pensions to $40 a month, denied that the Heil administration has served the interests of the farmers, and denied Bassett's interpretation of state budget figures under Heil and the preceding administration.

"The Republican administration's action (on pensions) was like writing a check with no money in the bank to back it. If any of the old folks are receiving extra pension money, it is because the counties have made good to them, and the counties raise their money by levying on local farms and homes," the state Progressive leader declared.

Probably the last thing he ever wrote was such a notation. It was on Dec. 13, 1799: "Morning snowing and about 3 inches deep. Wind up at no. 6, and mer. at 30. Snowing."

'Keep Wolf From Door' Scholarship Is Planned At Brown University

Providence, R. I. — (AP) — A "Keep the wolf from the door" prize scholarship, amounting to a dollar a day for a year, is to be awarded for the first time next year to a Brown university senior to help him through his first rough days in the business world.

Walter Hoving of the class of 1920, president of Brown's Associated Alumni and president of Lord and Taylor, New York, announced the new scholarship, believed the first of its kind, at the annual meeting of the Associated Alumni Advisory Council today.

Commenting that he wanted seniors to "think more seriously and objectively about their business careers before they graduate," Hoving said he would give $365, payable monthly for a year, to the senior who writes the best 2,500-5,000-word essay on how and why he chose his vocation.

"In other words," Hoving asserted, "the scholarship will amount to a dollar a day to help keep the wolf from the door while the senior is trying to get himself established in his chosen business."

Wants Weir as Head Of G.O.P. Funds Group

Washington — (AP) — Chairman John Hamilton of the Republican national committee announced today the appointment of Ernest T. Weir, the Pittsburgh steel man, as chairman of the party's finance committee.

Weir is the chairman of the board of the National Steel Corporation and is president of the Iron and Steel Institute.

A critic of the Roosevelt administration, Weir has been embroiled with New Deal agencies and with the CIO frequently.

Bombing Intended as Warning But It May Have Opposite Effect on Norway, Sweden

BY DEWITT MACKENZIE

New York — (AP) — Whatever may be Moscow's explanation of the Russian bombing of the Swedish village of Rajala, the Scandinavian public reaction is bound to be the same—that this is a grim warning to Sweden and Norway to keep hands off the Red invasion of Finland.

One would not expect, however, that this terrible incident would have a restraining influence on the average citizen of either Sweden or Norway. Indeed it is quite likely to have just the opposite effect on these proud peoples.

There could be no more convincing reminder that if the Bolsheviks conquer the Finns—as will happen—unless the latter gets aid quickly—the Muscovites will to all intents be next-door neighbors to the Swedes and Norwegians. This is a contingency which gives the two Scandinavian states nightmares.

Public Divided

From the standpoint of the Swedish government the bombing is a real misfortune since it comes at a moment when public opinion is divided and inflamed over the question of whether the country should abandon its neutrality and go to the aid of the Finns. Pressure from the people for a change of government policy has been very heavy and may easily increase as the result of the Pajala affair.

In the long run this may be the thing which will draw Sweden and Norway into the Russo-Finnish war as partners with the Anglo-French allies. It is difficult to see, whatever way you figure it, how they can avoid taking a hand in this conflict sooner or later.

If the European crisis involved merely the argument between Germany and the Anglo-French brotherhood, then the Scandinavian states might hope to keep clear of it, as they did in the World War. But Russia's westward drive has entirely altered the picture.

Both Sweden and Norway have made it clear that they regard their security as menaced by communist Russia. Their whole inclination is to rush to the aid of their neighbor and sweep the Red flood back behind its own banks once more.

The reason they haven't done this is because of Nazi threats to take action against them if they abandon neutrality. But if Finland loses ultimately because of lack of aid, Sweden and Norway will have to fight Russia anyway, if their fears of Soviet ambitions are well founded.

Therefore the Scandinavian countries would seem to be up against the unhappy position of having to decide whether it would be more advantageous all round to get into the fight now, or whether it is better to delay. That's precisely the problem which is agitating the Swedish public at this moment.

Roosevelt Won't Oppose Critics, Democrats Report

Expect Him to Assume Hands Off Policy Toward Anti-New Dealers

BY D. HAROLD OLIVER

Washington — (AP) — Several Democratic senators expressed the belief today that President Roosevelt would refrain from any general effort to defeat anti-administration congressmen.

A hands-off attitude would contrast with his 1938 stand, when he tried to block renomination of three anti-New Deal senators and one house member. The president failed in three of the four attempts.

Politicians argued that White House participation in any primary congressional contests this spring might injure Mr. Roosevelt's chances of controlling the Democratic presidential nomination if he declines to run himself.

Senator Holt (D-W. Va.), an administration critic, said he would not be surprised at a new deal move against his own candidacy for renomination, but he felt that there would be no "general drive" of 1938 proportions.

Holt said he had talked with several "possible 1940 purges" and found none who thought the administration was going to "gun" for him.

There is no likelihood of administration opposition to Senators Wheeler (D-Mont.) and O'Mahoney (D-Wyo.) for their part in the court reorganization fight, Holt said.

Senator Gerry (D-R. I.), who has opposed several New Deal measures, said he had "given up trying to guess" what the administration might do in the coming campaign.

Senator Burke (D-Neb.), a critic of administration labor policies, will have opposition in the April 9 primary from Gov. Roy Cochran. But Burke said today:

"There is nothing to indicate a purge as far as my state is concerned."

Senator Byrd of Virginia, opponent of administration fiscal policies, would not discuss possible New Deal opposition to his renomination.

Vandenberg Chairman Denies State Coalition

Milwaukee — (AP) — Laurence Hall of Madison, chairman of the Vandenberg-for-President club in Wisconsin, denied last night that any coalition existed between Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich.) and Senator Taft (R-Ohio) in connection with Washington reports Taft would stay out of the Wisconsin presidential primary on April 2.

"Any rumor or statement with reference to a coalition or any agreement, expressed or implied, affecting the Vandenberg slate of delegates or movement having entered into any arrangement with any other supporters of leading candidates is absolutely false," Hall declared.

"We are for Senator Vandenberg for president. The Taft forces or anyone else had ample opportunity, and still have, to file and we do not intend to have any such coalition either suggested or implied," Hall added.

Appleton Is Host to Legion Oratory Meet

Appleton High school will be host to the second annual regional oratorical contest sponsored by the American Legion, Saturday, Mar. 2, Janesville, Superior Central, Wausau and Appleton High schools will compete.

H. H. Heible, principal, will preside. Judges who have been asked to select a regional representative are William Blum, Marvin Babler and Edgar Hagene, social science instructors.

Two orators from each region will participate in the state contest in Milwaukee, Mar. 23. The state winner then will go to the national contest.

ADMITS KILLING

Police Chief Harry Bispham said at Palm Springs, Calif., that Mrs. Betty Hardaker (above), 26, had admitted beating her daughter to death in a park restroom, advancing as her reason "She was too good to live." She denied membership in a cult alleged to believe in human sacrifice.

Rail Labor Committee Supports 22 Senators

Washington — (AP) — The Railway Labor Executives association representing 20 of the 21 railroad labor organizations today publicly endorsed 22 senators for renomination in state primaries.

Among the Democrats on the list were Ashurst (Ariz.), Slattery (Ill.), Minton (Ind.), Truman (Mo.), Wheeler (Mont.), Pittman (Nev.), Donahue (Ohio), McKellar (Tenn.).

Republicans included Johnson (Calif.), Vandenberg (Mich.) and Frazier (N. O.).

The list also named Shipstead (F. L. Minn.) and LaFollette (P. Wis.).

In the Nebraska Democratic senatorial primary, the association endorsement went to Governor R. L. Cochran over Senator Burke.

The association is expected to announce later a list of endorsed candidates for the house.

Administrators Off To St. Louis Parley

War Propaganda Work Described In Rotary Talk

Haas Tells How European Countries Color News Of Conflict

Kaukauna—News and propaganda formed the subject of Grant C. Haas, Madison current events commentator, as he spoke before the Rotary club yesterday noon at Hotel Kaukauna.

Haas credited England and France with scoring several triumphs in coloring the news which reaches the American public. All Europe supposed the burden of attack to be on the allies, if the aim of restoring Poland and Czechoslovakia was to be accomplished, Haas said, but instead the allies have made it appear as if Germany was to begin the offense.

France and England have let the United States receive the general impression that Germany is being slowly but surely strangled in an economic way. Haas pointed out as another example of allied propaganda which is in nowise blunt and direct. Haas said the effects of the allied blockade would not begin to be known until fall, and that the real prospect was that the war might become a deadlock.

Won't Strangle Easily
"Germany will not be strangled as easily as in the last war. She is now hemmed in by enemies, but is free to receive raw materials on the north, east and south."

Stalin of Russia hopes the conflict turns into a long drawn out struggle without decisive military victories on either side, Haas stated. The capitalist nations think that they will be easy marks for the aggression of communism.

Haas explained the relations of foreign newspaper correspondents with censoring governments. American correspondents were far more successful in reporting the truth than those of any other nation. Haas claimed, as reporters of other countries mixed opinion and fact freely. Haas concluded by showing examples of propaganda issued by nations and organizations.

Boots Tops Cage League Scoring

9 Points in Last Game Gives Title to Merchant Player

Kaukauna—Scoring 9 points in the final game of the city basketball league season, Bud Boots of the championship Merchant team edged out Ves Hanby of the Mellow Brews for the league scoring title, with 61 points on 26 field goals and 9 free throws. Hanby made only 4 points Sunday and ended with a total of 60 on 25 goals and 10 free throws.

The Merchants won the title, being undefeated in 10 straight games. Last year the D-X Oils were champions, with a lineup which included practically all the players on this year's Merchant five.

The ten high scorers are as follows:

Boots, Merchants	26	9	61

Mrs. Ralph Restle Scores Top Count In Women's Loop

Hits 200 Game: Roses Chalk Up 1.663 Series For New Record

Ladies League
Standings	W. L.
Kellogg's Pansies	34 26
Restless Daisies	33 27
Uncle's Orchids	28 32
Raschke's Roses	25 35

New London—Mrs. Ralph Restle cracked a record 200 game in the Ladies' Afternoon League at Prahls alleys yesterday afternoon and Raschke's Roses piled up a new team mark of 1,663 with a 504 game. The Daisies took three games from the Orchids to get the game behind the leaders. The Pansies lost two to the Roses.

Girls Club League
Carter-Hansons pushed the league team record up one point with a 443 count, pined by M. J. Carter with a 190 line and 484 total. They won two from P. H. News as the second place New London Constructors collected three from the trailing Daves Service.

Major League
Dave Vanderwey whipped a 530 series with a 212 game and Bob Monsted snapped 217 and 533 to pace Crispy and the Business Men's Major League. The quint took two from McLaughlin's Clothes but Green Glens broke a game ahead when they collected three matches from the Mohawks. Erv Buss knocked 544 with two games of 195 for the Oils.

Games, Mock Trial Feature Meeting of Senior Young People

New London—About 30 young people attended a special social meeting of the Emanuel Young People's Senior society at the Lutheran church parlors Tuesday night. A variety of games entertained and a mock trial conducted by John Kozmick featured the program. The committee in charge was Miss Pearl Reloff, chairman. Arthur Prahls and Miss Edna Molotho. The same trio will arrange entertainment for the regular meeting of the group next Tuesday evening.

WHAT TO DO FOR RHEUMATIC PAINS

Take RUX COMPOUND the internal medicine containing pure, powerful ingredients which are readily absorbed by the blood and carried to painful areas where they act quickly by congestion and pain. This internal method is generally approved by modern physicians, because liniments, massage and external heat applications often fail to reach the pain. RUX contains no opiates—no harmful or irritating ingredients. Used by thousands. Contains alkalis and diuretics to help reduce excess acidity—an important factor in aiding Rheumatic Pain relief. The ingredients are listed right on the package so you, and your doctor, can see how good it is.

MAKE THIS TEST! Rheumatic Pains "tear you down"—"age" you—kill your pleasure. Thousands have had comforting relief from RUX COMPOUND, so don't put it off. Try RUX today. Costs only a few cents a day to take. Three economy sizes, $1, $1.50 and $6, at leading drug stores. Come to our store TODAY and ask for RUX COMPOUND. We recommend it!

Democratic Party Machines Awaiting Word of 'Big Boss'

One-Man Obedience Idea Coming From Liberal West, Lawrence Says

BY DAVID LAWRENCE
Washington—For years the Democratic party has had the benefit of a label which often was spelled with a small "D" as well as a large "D" by its supporters and admirers. But with the introduction of the third term issue the opposition will have a new name to offer—the party of "dictatorship."

This is the rising trend of sentiment of the country even among some Democrats who have hitherto worshipped at the shrine of Thomas Jefferson. It was Mr. Jefferson who uttered a warning against third terms and refused to allow his friends to give him a third nomination. The phrase, "the party of Jefferson," will become moot if the Democratic party breaks tradition and nominates the president for a third term.

The "dictatorship" issue, however, emerges not so much from any analogy to European happenings as from a strictly American development that used to be known as "bossism."

Today in all parts of the country are to be found Democratic state chairmen, national committeemen, county chairmen and office holders who are saying publicly that they are waiting for President Roosevelt to say whether or not he wants the nomination. The question is not "what does the party want to do?" but "what does Mr. Roosevelt want to do?"

Don't Dare

Even prominent Democratic candidates are confessing by their public statements that they do not dare to ask support for themselves unless and until Mr. Roosevelt's wishes are known.

No more convincing case could be given of party intimidation or party dictatorship by one man aided by the satellites around him who operate supposedly in his name. The fact that Mr. Roosevelt has done nothing thus far to repudiate the activities of members of his own official family—persons who are under obligation to him because he appointed them to public office—is being taken to mean that the president has given tacit consent.

If one man can so control a political party that it dares not make up its mind till his wishes are known or if delegates are being hand-picked now through office-holder influence so that one man will control the party convention, it will be the most conspicuous example of bossism that American politics has ever witnessed. There have been local bosses heretofore—like Murphy in New York or Kelly in Chicago or Pendergast in Kansas City who have reared their heads in Democratic national conventions. There have been bosses like Penrose and Quay and Barnes and others in the Republican party who have sought to dominate national conventions, but it was always the fear of the liberals in the Democratic party—the followers of an honest liberal for instance, like William Jennings Bryan—to fight the bosses. Mr. Bryan fought particularly against the one boss idea because he struggled to get and did succeed in meeting in the Democratic platform a plank favoring a single term of six years for presidents of the United States.

Western Liberals

Western liberals who believed in the sincerity of William Jennings Bryan and his efforts to keep his party worthy of a small "D" as well as a large "D" seem to have fallen by the wayside. Indeed, from the

Appleton Streets How They Were Named

This is one of a number of brief articles telling how certain Appleton streets received their names. The Post-Crescent would appreciate information about streets not already run in this series. Letters may be addressed to the City Editor, Appleton Post-Crescent.

Telulah avenue—From E. Newberry street to city limits, 12 blocks east of S. Oneida street.

Named for Telulah springs, said to have been named after a beautiful Indian girl named Telulah, who many years ago lived on that spot.

Third street—From State street to Story street, seven blocks south of College avenue.

Named thus because it is the Third street from the river.

Tonka street—From North street to Bellaire court, 11 blocks east of Oneida street.

Named for an Indian word, said to mean "grand."

Gets Permit to Build Underground Gas Tank

Louis Blinder, 918 N. Union street, yesterday was given a permit by the city building inspector to install an underground tank of 140-gallon capacity for gasoline storage. Cost of the tank is estimated at $100. The application was approved by the fire inspector.

A permit to remodel his basement was granted to Florian Merk, 521 N. Superior street. Cost of the improvement is estimated at $100.

west itself is coming obedience to the one-man party idea and a third term nomination.

Democrats of the Jeffersonian or Bryan school of thought may stand aghast at what is happening, but the fact remains that because of a few political offices and jobs and other direct benefits, the Democratic party machines everywhere are waiting for the big boss in Washington to say what he wants. The idea that a true Democrat would never ask any one man how to vote in a Democratic national convention seems not to have occurred to the new Democrats or New Dealers of today. For no matter what President Roosevelt may say now about his wishes for a third term, history will record that in the year 1940 the Great Democratic party in state after state hesitated to speak its mind for fear of offending the man who had acquired the power of dictatorship over the party nomination.

Western liberals who believed in the sincerity of William Jennings Bryan and his efforts to keep his party worthy of a small "D" as well as a large "D" seem to have fallen by the wayside. Indeed, from the Pepples Many Suffer Low Blood Count—And Don't Know It.

The baffling thing about low blood count is that you can watch about as much as 20 years did—even lose weight and strength, be nervous and feel as if you had lead in your legs, dizziness, tired and nervous.

Low blood count means you haven't got enough red blood corpuscles. It's their job to carry life-giving oxygen from your lungs throughout your body. And just as it takes oxygen to excite gasoline in your car and make the power to turn the wheels, so you must have plenty of oxygen to expand the energy in your body and give you vim and power.

Get Dr. Williams' Pink Pills today. The new world-famous for the help they give in increasing the number and strength of red corpuscles. Then with your blood count up you'll feel like bounding up the stairs as you were fondling on air. Ask your druggist or Dr. Williams' Pink Pills today.

Ear Disease Usually Comes By Way of Throat Passages

Madison—"What is a mastoid?" from side to side, it needs a firm union to the skull,—thus the enlarged bony bump called the mastoid.

"Mastoiditis is an inflammation of the mastoid bone. Inflammation of the mastoid does not begin on the outside but on the inside of the mastoid bone. Disease of the mastoid rarely takes place unless there is or has been disease of the ear. Disease of the ear in most instances arrives in the ear by way of the throat. The bump of bone behind the ear has a definite connection with the throat, and also with that part of the throat behind the nose called the nasopharynx or nose-throat. Children with head colds may have an extension of the infection to the throat back of the nose. From here the infection may travel through a little tube to the ear. From the ear, the cells in the mastoid may be involved.

Other Infections

"Other infections in the back of the nose which may cause ear disease are tonsillitis, enlarged adenoids, and the infectious disease such as influenza, measles, and scarlet fever.

"The usual route taken by bacteria to the middle ear cavity is by way of a tube or channel in the back of the throat behind the nose. Earache is caused by the swelling in the little space inside the ear drum. Swelling is the consequence of infection. If this swelling or infection progresses, the ear drum becomes red and bulges out and the individual does not hear well in the involved ear. The ear drum may rupture spontaneously or may be ruptured surgically. If this little inner chamber swells rapidly, the infection is spread into the antrum or upper mastoid cell where it has access to the remaining cells. If the infection is severe enough or drainage through the ear drum is inadequate, tenderness, redness and swelling occur over the mastoid bone back of the ear. This is evidence of mastoiditis.

"The seriousness of an infection of the mastoid arises from the fact that it lies in close relation to important anatomical structures involving large blood vessels and the brain cavity itself. Mastoiditis, unless relieved by surgical measures at the proper time, may extend to these anatomical structures and cause serious complications."

Schedule Second Twin City Safety School Tuesday

Ohio Newspaper Man to Speak at Menasha High School Auditorium

Menasha — The second of the Twin City industrial schools sponsored by the boards of vocational and adult education of Neenah and Menasha, as well as local industries, will be held at 8:15 Tuesday night at the Menasha High school auditorium.

Myer Norman Imrie, associate editor of the Columbus Dispatch, Ohio, will be the speaker at the general meeting. Walter E. Strong of the Menasha Paper Mills will be the chairman of the general meeting. The subject of the address by Mr. Imrie will be "What America Needs."

The Menasha High school band under the direction of L. J. Kraft will play a concert before the general session. The first general meeting was held in January at Neenah where over 200 persons heard C. Wayland Brooks, Clarks attorney. The final meeting of the school will be held in March.

Twin City school is planned to enable employers of local industries to study and apply modern methods of industrial education.

Sectional Meetings

Sectional meetings at 7:30 in which safety for specific groups will be the major consideration will precede the general meeting. The sectional meetings will be held in various rooms at the high school.

Irving Vogel, Marathon Paper company, will be the chairman for the general maintenance, construction, electrical and power section. A. A. Solger, Wisconsin Industrial commission, Madison, will be the speaker with "Safety in Maintenance Work" as the subject.

Transportation and materials handling section will hear C. F. Schleuter, Employers Mutual, Wausau, at its meeting. Ralph Suess, Menasha Wooden Ware company, will be the chairman. The subject will be "Safety in Loading and Unloading."

"Machine Room Hazards" will be discussed at the meeting of the manufacturing and converting section. Howard Aderhold, Marathon Paper Mills, will be the chairman. Forrest Werling, Kimberly-Clark Corporation, will be the speaker.

Dr. E. Meiter, Employers Mutual, Wausau, will discuss "Gases and Fumes in Printing Industry" at the meeting of the printing section. Marvin Wauson, Marathon Paper Mills, will be the chairman.

"Safety in the Home" will be the subject of a discussion by R. C. Salsbury, Oshkosh. Donnie Brown, Kimberly-Clark Corporation, will be the chairman. Walter Strong, general chairman, has invited members of the Nicolet school Parent-Teachers association to hear the discussion.

Plans for the safety school are made by a committee of 14 members. A. C. Haseloff, secretary of the Gilbert Paper company, is the general chairman. Carl Christensen, director of the Neenah vocational school, is the secretary.

Other members of the committee included S. E. Crockett, Menasha Vocational school director; L. A. Carpenter, Bergstrom Paper company; John H. Eckrich, Menasha Western Industrial commission; Henry Jung, Harwood Products corporation; Edward Page, Kimberly-Clark Corporation; John Pinkerton, Gilbert Paper company; Francis P. Rooney, George Bantley Publishing company; Leo Schubert, Neenah Paper company; R. M. Sensesbrenner, Whiting Paper company; John C. Simichin, Kimberly-Clark Corporation; and Walter E. Strong, Marathon Paper Mills.

58 High Schools are Invited to Festival

Neenah — Invitations have been sent to Neenah and Menasha high schools as well as other high schools in 56 other communities in central Wisconsin asking them to participate in the annual district music festival at Oshkosh next spring.

Individuals representing these 58 schools have been invited to attend a meeting at Oshkosh at 2:30 Saturday afternoon at the Raulf hotel. Dates and judges for the festival will be selected.

Among the schools invited to participate are Appleton, Brillion, Clintonville, Chilton, Hortonville, Manitowish, Marquette, Menasha, Neenah, Neenah-Menasha, New London, Oshkosh, Waubesa, Waunakee, and Wausau.

Lieutenant Governor Talks to Kiwanis Club

Neenah — Donald H. Klueh, lieutenant governor of the state, talked at the Kiwanis club Wednesday at the Valley Inn.

Mr. Klueh, who is running for the Wisconsin junior college and academy, urged the Kiwanis to "know Kiwanis International and Your Local Club Organization," better in 1940.

The Twin Cities office of the Appleton Post-Crescent for its editorial, circulation and display advertising departments is located at 510 N. Commercial street, and the telephone number is 4100. News items, copy or orders for display advertising and orders for subscriptions may be left at the office or telephoned. Orders for classified advertising should be placed by telephoning 543 in Appleton, and the cost of the telephone call will be rebated. The Twin Cities office closes at 7 o'clock in the evening.

Display Posters by Junior Red Cross at Elisha Smith Library

Menasha — Posters on patriotism citizenship prepared by members of the American Junior Red Cross of the Menasha public and parochial schools have been placed on display in the reading room of Elisha D. Smith public library. The posters were prepared for the second annual meeting held at the library Monday and will be on display this week.

The posters are free hand drawing, cut work, and pen and ink drawings. Several flags of cut paper were prepared by children of St. John's school. Thrift, safety, truthfulness and other civic virtues form the themes of many of the posters.

One of the outstanding posters shows dark clouds of contention hovering around the capital building with streams of light are breaking through. The slogan is "Let there be light." The poster was prepared by Elaine Dombrowski and Patricia A. Frederick of St. Patrick's school.

Falcon, Germania Keglers to Clash

Teams Will Tangle for Supremacy at Hendy Alloys Sunday Night

Menasha — Keglers of the Polish Falcons league and the Germania league will battle for supremacy at 7 o'clock Sunday night at the Hendy alloys. The Falcons issued the challenge and have been gleefully accepted by the Germania keggers.

The two leagues initiated their series of matches last year. Harold Berro, secretary of the Germania league, said today, "They're asking for it. Last year we took it easy with them in the first match and when they weren't satisfied we used the bottom six teams of our league and beat them. This year we'll beat them at bowling and at disposing of the refreshments afterward."

The matches last year went into the books as an even break with the Falcons taking the first and the Germania league the second. However, the Germania claimed that the Falcons used some very dubious arithmetic to win the first match. Badger Nadelman, ace of the Falcon squad, scouted the Germania league for the last three weeks before the Falcons issued their challenge so apparently the Polish lads are quite confident.

The Germania league has nominated the top six teams of its league to battle with the Falcons Sunday. Those teams are Bayers Bar, Broadway No. 1, and 2, Meyer, Oil Meadowview and Bert and Bens. If the Falcons should feel like trying their luck again later in the season the bottom six teams of the Germania league will do the kegging.

R. Kropidowski Tops Hendy Women's League

Menasha — R. Kropidowski rolled a 556 series for top honors in the Hendy Women's league Wednesday night. She had games of 172, 220, and 164 for her total. Her teammate, E. Terrien, was second high with a 550 on games of 188, 176, and 186.

Other high series included L. Landskrum 521, E. Schmidt 504, L. Henk 515, Lorraine Eckrich 519, S. Wiese 521, C. Hendy 511, A. Strong 501, L. Keapock 515, R. Brodzinski 541, L. Peterson 528, and L. Currie 543.

Best single game was a 242 by Lorraine Eckrich. L. Peterson rolled a 213 and S. Wiese hit a 207 score.

High team series was a 2,531 by United Meats followed by Bungalow Bar with a 2,500 total. Wheeler Transportation was third with a 2,499 series and had the high team game of 895 pins.

3 New Records are Set in Industrial Basketball Wheel

Schmidt, Kettering and Draheim's Establish Scoring Marks

Neenah — Three Industrial Basketball league records were shattered last night at Roosevelt school gymnasium as the championship Draheim five trounced Courtenay-Plummer, 54 to 27, and Kuehls scored a 33 to 31 win over Hewitt Machines.

H. Schmidt, Draheim forward, scored 23 points in one game to break a record set by Bouressa of the Neenah Police five last year. The latter had scored 20 points. R. Kettering, Draheim forward, broke his own record by scoring 55 field goals this season, counting eight baskets last night. He set the previous record last year with 54 buckets. The third mark was broken by Draheim's when they scored 54 points last night. Draheim's and the Police were tied last year with 53 points for a single game.

Schmidt paced Draheim's in their win over the Courtenay-Plummer outfit when he counted 11 field goals and a free throw for 23 points. Kettering's 16 points on 8 field goals and Peterson's 9 points on four baskets and a free throw also helped Draheim's. D. Young, forward, was high scorer for the Courtenay-Plummer five. He got 12 points on 6 baskets. T. Young scored three baskets.

Lead Changes Hands

Although Hewitt Machines trailed Kuehls during the first half, it was a nip and tuck contest. Kuehls took a 12 to 5 lead at the end of the opening quarter and held a 21 to 15 margin at halftime intermission. Hewitt's jumped into a 27 to 24 lead at the end of the third stanza, but during the final stanza, Kuehls' counted nine points while restricting Hewitts to four.

Hahl, forward, paced Kuehls' with 14 points on six buckets and two free throws, while Hass, center, got four baskets and a free throw. R. Bunker, forward, was high scorer for the Hewitts, counting 11 points on 4 field goals and 3 gift shots. Meyer counted 10 points and Kloss got 8.

GRIN AND BEAR IT

"Here's a car with that new improvement—no clutch!"

19 Recent Graduates of Twin City High Schools Are Engaged in Nursing

Neenah — In the last five years, 30 graduates of Neenah and Menasha High schools planned to be modern Florence Nightingales but of that number only 19 actually finished their courses and are registered nurses or are in training at present.

Miss Vanda Kresse, daughter of John Kresse, route 1, Neenah, who was graduated from Neenah High school in 1934, received her training at Theda Clark hospital Nurses Training school, graduating in September of 1938. She was awarded the Carrie F. Clark scholarship and is doing graduate work in surgical nursing in the east.

Miss Rita Fahley, another graduate of the class of 1934, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman J. Fahley, 113 Tyler street, received her R.N. from Mercy hospital in Oshkosh and is employed at that hospital.

Miss Ida Smith, class of 1934, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Smith, who now lives at 368 Nassau street, Menasha, graduated from Mercy hospital in Oshkosh also and is working in Cook county hospital in Chicago.

Theda Clark Graduate

Another Theda Clark hospital graduate is Miss Virginia Hoffman, from the class of 1935, who is employed at the hospital at present.

Trains at Milwaukee

Another graduate of that class, Miss Shirley Mathis, received her registered nurse degree from Deaconess hospital in Milwaukee.

Miss Laverne Borchert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Borchert, 338 Smith street, and Miss Dorothy Cowling, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Cowling, route 1, will graduate from the Mercy hospital school of nursing in August. Both girls graduated from Neenah High school in 1937.

Miss Blanche L. Andersen, daughter of Mrs. Mary Andersen, 3204 Main street, who graduated from Neenah High school in 1934, received her registered nurse degree from St. Mary's school of Nursing in Rochester, Minn. She has been on private duty at St. Mary's hospital since graduation. Miss Andersen will leave March 11 for San Francisco where she will enter the Navy Nurse corps.

Miss Verna Magdanz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Magdanz, 3 Commercial street, a Neenah graduate with the class of 1937, is in training at the Milwaukee hospital school of nursing.

Training at Oshkosh

Miss Aileen Jackson, a graduate last year from Neenah High school, is in training at Mercy hospital in Oshkosh.

Miss Margaret Gajewski, daughter of the Alex Gajewski's, Fifth street, Menasha, who graduated from Mercy hospital in Oshkosh last year is employed at St. Elizabeth hospital in Appleton.

Neenah — George Rosenow starred as the Wickert Lumber went on a pinbusting rampage for the second week in succession to pace the Commercial Bowling league last night at the Neenah alloys.

Rosenow shot a 666 high total on games of 212, 247 and 207, and his game of 247 was tops. He paced his team to a 2,908 high series and a 3-game victory over the Weinke Grocery five. The victory pushed the Wickert Lumber into a second place tie with the Weinke's.

Al Blohm shot second high series of 638 on lines of 201, 228 and 209, while E. Schultz hit a 620. Kenneth Kuehl rolled second high games of 244

Guild President Asserts Closed Shop Necessary

Washington—(P)—Kenneth Crawford, American Newspaper Guild president, told the house labor committee today that the guild believed "the closed shop is necessary" for its continued growth and for stabilization of working conditions.

He disputed a statement by Oliver Holden, American Press society representative, that the closed shop tended to interfere with freedom of the press.

Crawford said that the phrase "closed shop" was a misnomer, asserting that the guild sought "guild shops" under which employers hire whom they please, but the new worker must become a guild member in 30 days.

"We've been victimized by that freedom of the press argument since the first day of the NRA," Crawford said. "It is said that it affected the freedom of the press to place any regulation on their operations any place along the line."

Crawford said that even if guild members were ordered to color news, perhaps by their leaders or by a union, they would say, "go to hell."

Guild Shop Arguments

In a prepared statement, he gave reasons for seeking the "guild shop."

"It is the same reason that accounts for the desire of most unions to get closed shops or union shops. It assures dues collections and requires everyone enjoying the benefits of organization to contribute his share toward the maintenance of the organization."

"Our dues are not high—$1.50 a month in Washington. Many publishers have fought us with something like fury on the closed shop issue—and some of them have frankly confessed that they did so because they feared that closed shops would make us too strong."

"Most of them, however, professed to see a threat against freedom of the press. Actually, there is no such threat in the guild shop. A little later, Crawford told the committee:

"We have several closed shop contracts now and I defy anyone to deny anyone to find a bona fide instance of their use to color the news or to discriminate against any newspaperman because of his opinions."

"I don't know of a case where a man has been denied employment in a closed shop because we have refused him a card, but I cannot say definitely that it has not happened."

quire senate ratification of the trade agreements, 41 would favor it, and the votes of 6 would be in doubt.

Since the opposition is expected to reach its maximum strength on the ratification amendment, supporters said they were confident of final approval of the program. The administration strategists did not count on any senate Republicans to vote for the program.

The house will vote tomorrow on the legislation, sidetracking business today for observance of George Washington's birthday anniversary.

House Democratic leaders predicted that not more than 25 Democrats would vote against the extension bill. They pointed to a speech in New York last night by Representative Barton (R-N. Y.) in support of the program as an indication that Republican opposition would not be solid.

"It is a matter of common sense that we should take useful goods—rather than, to us, useless gold—in exchange for our imports," Barton said.

Attendance at the house debate reached its low point just before the discussion was concluded last night. There were two Democrats and one Republican in their seats at the time.

Wisconsin Weather

Fair, milder, colder; cold wave northward; north central portion tonight; Friday fair, slowly rising; temperatures extreme south-east and west central portions.

General Weather

A low pressure area which now overlies Lake Superior has been attended by light snow since yesterday morning over the upper and central Mississippi valley and the upper Lakes. Light rain has fallen over sections of the southeastern states, and light snow over the northern Rocky mountains, but generally fair weather prevailed this morning over the central and southern plains states and along the Pacific coast.

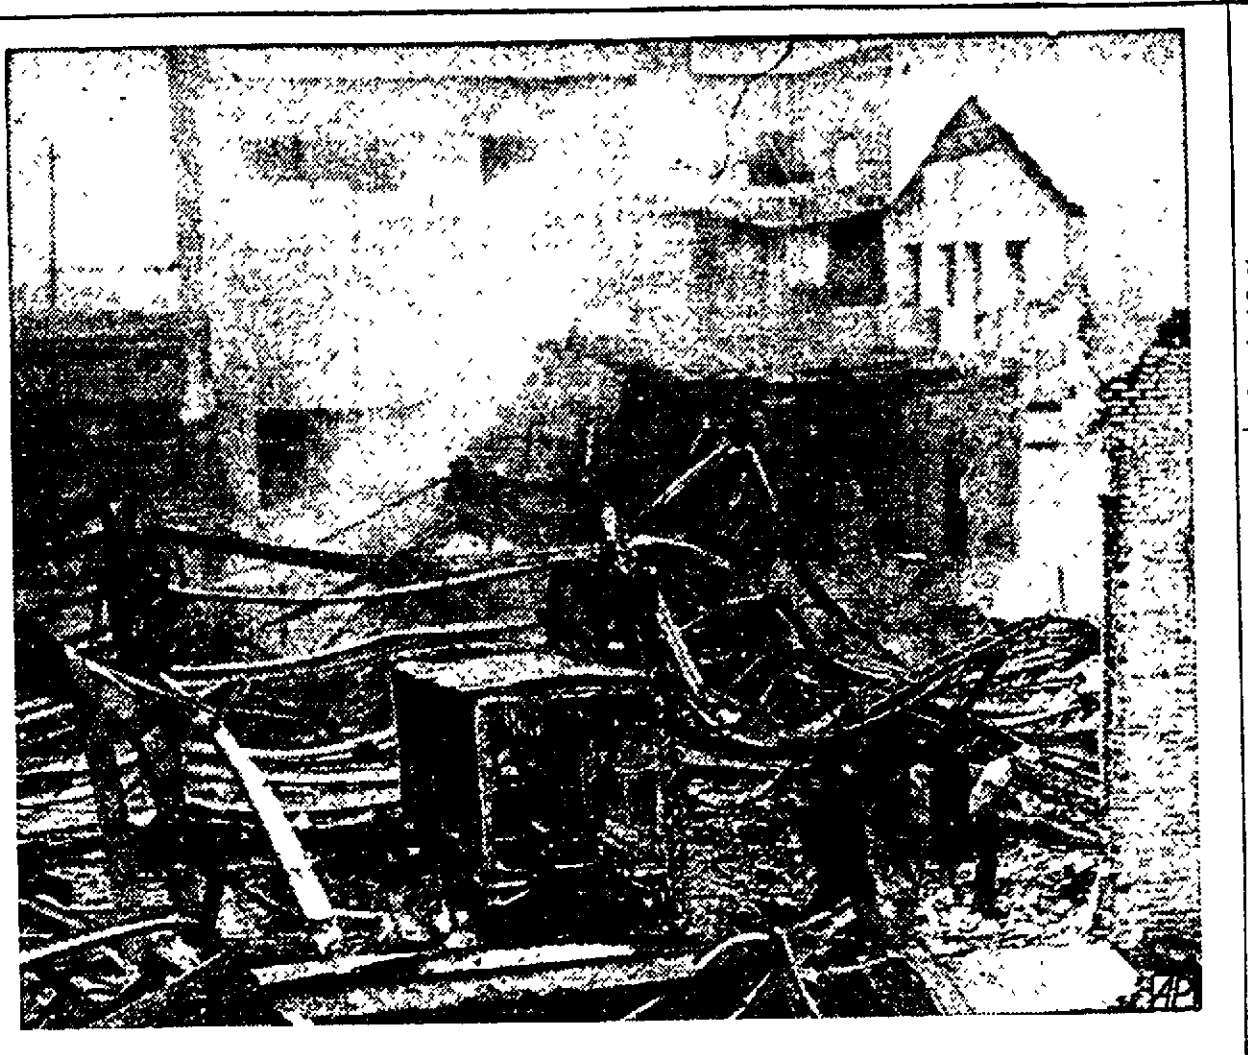

It is considerably colder over the northern plains states and the New England states, with sub-zero temperatures reported from sections of North and South Dakota and western Minnesota.

Fair weather is expected in this section during the next 24 hours, with much colder tonight.

DESCRIBES PLANT

Menasha—F. E. Sosenbrenner, vice president of International Wire Works, described the operation of the plant at the Wednesday noon luncheon meeting of the Menasha Rotary club at Hotel Menasha. Following the talk, members of the club toured the plant.

The term grand opera was first introduced in France in 1820.

FIRE DESTROYS CIRCUS BUILDING; ANIMALS LOST

The main building of the Cole Brothers circus winter quarters at Rochester, Ind., was a smoldering ruin after a fire swept the structure, burning to death more than a hundred valuable circus animals. Other animals, liberated by handlers before the flames reached them, roamed the streets of Rochester for several hours before their re-capture. Owners Zack Terrell and Jess Adkins estimated their loss at between $150,000 and $200,000.

Guild of St. Thomas Closes Books After 25 Years of Work

Menasha—The Guild of St. Thomas, which has been in existence as such for a quarter of a century, being the combined guilds of St. Stephen's church of Menasha and Trinity Episcopal church, Neenah, organized after the merger of the two churches into St. Thomas Episcopal church of Menasha and Neenah, held its last meeting Wednesday afternoon in the parish house. The Guild had formally disbanded about a month ago and Wednesday's meeting was to dispose of the money in the treasury. The Guild voted an amount necessary to repair completely the parish porch, voted its annual donations to the rector's discretionary fund for 1940 and to the house budget. The St. Anne's Guild had already started the fund for parish porch repairs and the Guild contributed enough to complete the funds for the project which is estimated at $500. It was with regret that members expressed the need for disbanding since the Guild has not a large enough working membership. The 12 women who closed the books of the St. Thomas Guild for the last time Wednesday were Mrs. Ella Smith, Miss Saline Pleasant, Mrs. George Banta, Sr., Miss Buddie Dudley, Mrs. Ida Watkins, Mrs. Hans Rasmussen, Mrs. Jay Gilhingham, Mrs. D. W. Dunham, Mrs. C. A. Comstock, Miss May Moulton, Mrs. Reginald Hallen and Mrs. Colin Armstrong.

Mrs. E. E. Ruby who will be leaving Menasha soon to make her home in another city, was honored at the luncheon meeting of Group 1 of the Ladies society of First Congregational church Wednesday at the church. A garden book "My Garden" was presented to Mrs. Ruby. Mrs. George Loeschner and Mrs. W. H. Miner were hostesses.

Plans for the covered dish supper at 6:30 Wednesday evening, Feb. 28, were discussed at the Wednesday evening meeting of Group 2 of the Ladies society of First Congregational church in the church. Mrs. Forrest Landreth and Mrs. Marvin Klem were hostesses.

Mrs. Edward F. Mielke, Appleton, will review "And Tell of Time" at the 7:30 Friday evening meeting of the B.B.B. society of First Congregational church at the church. Miss Blanche Fox, Mrs. Paul Fahrkrug, Miss L. L. Stewart and Miss Margaret Stewart will be hostesses.

Menasha Eagles entertained at the weekly card party Wednesday evening in Eagle hall. Prize winners in schafkopf included Mrs. A. Gracynal, Mrs. Paul Viergutz, George Miller and Ben Bodah.

Hunters Oppose, Favor Open Deer Season This Fall

Game Census Reports Show Varying Opinions On Number of Game

Madison—Debate as to a deer season next fall continues unabated and opinions range from suggestions that the season be closed for five years to recommendations that there be a fall season on both bucks and does.

Many hunters have expressed their deer hunting opinions on game census report cards returned to the conservation department. A number of weekly newspapers of northern Wisconsin are running a questionnaire to sound out hunter opinion in the area they cover.

Hunter opinions vary according to the places they visited and the experiences they had. Some claim Wisconsin has a scarcity of bucks and fawns and others contend they saw bucks and fawns in abundance.

Among the more emphatic reports is one from Francis Wyszski, Custer, Wis. He says:

"Saw 69 deer. All does had fawns. Did not see many bucks because they were in the swamp. I favor an open season for 1940."

Objectives of hunters apparently vary greatly. M. J. Hanley, Wausau, failed to get a deer and writes: "Blistered feet but a heck of a good time. Need tamer deer to give the hunter a better chance."

ABC'S CRITICISED

Waco, Texas—(P)—Dr. Iva Cox Gaudier of the Baylor University psychology department thinks public schools teach English courses "backward."

Students are taught the language by writing but she says the greatest use to which they put it is in speech.

"The same accusation applies to the oral teaching of spelling," she adds. "Although the only time one has occasion to spell is in writing, most spelling lessons are given by writing."

SAVING THE POLES

Juneau, Alaska—(P)—Preservation of the famed collection of totem poles at the Indian village of Klukwan, from deterioration by the elements, is proposed by Alaska's new governor, Dr. Ernest Gruening. He visited the noted tourist attraction recently and said he believed construction of a fireproof, concrete structure would be a good investment and would not be opposed by the villagers.

ROCK-A-BYE SKIERS

Rome, Italy—(P)—Ski enthusiasts will "swing" on their way from Rome and other southern cities to Northern Italy. Italian railways announced third class sleeping coaches will be equipped with hammocks. Additionally, the railroads are giving a 50 per cent reduction on all tickets for ski parties this winter.

LATIN CLUB MEETS

Neenah—The Neenah High school S. P. Q. R. club, a Latin class organization, met Wednesday afternoon with the adviser, Miss Fanny Kiser. The students worked on the "Applan Way."

Today and Tomorrow

BY WALTER LIPPMAN

Some Notes on War and Peace

The world as a whole, and the United States in particular, is full of cynics who are convinced that because the settlement of the other war was a failure, the settlement of this war must also be a failure. The study of a little history is no doubt depressing. But there is no warrant in human experience for a pessimism which insists that no war can ever end in a good peace. If this war, for example, could end in as long a peace as that which most of mankind enjoyed for the hundred years between the battle of Waterloo in 1815 and the invasion of Belgium in 1914, we should be entitled to say that it was a good peace.

To be sure, there were wars in the nineteenth century; there was injustice and oppression. But the wars were local and limited; the injustice and oppression were remediable and diminishing. There was enough peace to allow men to devote their main energies to the conquest of nature and the improvement of the standards of life; there was enough justice and freedom to permit the liquidation of many ancient wrongs.

Must Aim at Possible

Perpetual peace which eradicates all evils is not an attainable ideal at this stage in the slow process of evolving mankind. This may be said, but it would seem to be true. And if it is true, then those who can become interested only in a perfect peace are sentimentalists and are bound to be disappointed. And as we know, a cynic is a disappointed sentimentalist.

We must aim at the possible, or we shall accomplish nothing at all. We must aim at a peace which is good enough to endure without serious interruption in the world as it is and among men as they are—for perhaps fifty years. In fifty years of peace much can be done; this is a sufficiently great thing to work for. Our forefathers a hundred years ago did better than that, and what they did once even we might hope to do again.

Good Treaty of Peace Would Assuage Conflict

I do not say these things by way of introducing some personal plan of my own for the establishment of peace. I respect those who make such plans, who design new constitutions for the human race, and redraw the political map of the world, and devise great schemes for organizing world-wide co-operation. But though they may contribute useful suggestions, and though they do frequently throw light on specific issues, I do not believe that any man or any generation of men is able to imagine, much less to induce mankind to accept, a contrived and invented peace.

Concealed within all such schemes there is, it seems to me, an unconscious and unrealized premise: that the new peace which has been imagined will somehow be imposed on the peoples of the world by force, or that it will be accepted as a result of some miracle, that engenders a universal consent. I do not believe that any one will ever possess enough force to impose a general peace, and I do not believe we shall live to see the miracle of universal consent. Therefore, I hold that these plans, schemes, devices and blueprints are a false approach to the problem. For in the last analysis they assume that the victorious survivors of the war will be devout believers in the plan.

It is most unlikely that the survivors of any war will take anything like an identical view of their respective interests, their immediate needs and their specific aspirations. Now it is the survivors who will make the peace. Whether it is a good peace which lasts a reasonably long time, or is a bad peace which makes necessary immediate preparations for the next war, will depend upon whether the arrangements in the settlement are such that they promote or discourage the reconciliation of the great conflicting interests. No war can obliterate the conflicts of interests. No treaty of peace can eliminate them.

But a war may be well-conducted so as to harmonize sound military tactics with a sound political strategy. If it is a war may produce a situation in which the conflict of interest are capable of being reconciled. Then a good treaty of peace can commit the peoples to policies which assuage the conflicts and will, therefore, in the course of time make it appear sensible to liquidate the issues by successive adjustments and compromises.

Strategic Results of War Determine Basis of Peace

If we approach the problem in this fashion, we shall see, I believe, that the conduct of war and the making of peace are not distinct and contradictory operations. They are continuous. That is to say, the strategic results of a war determine the basis of conditions of the ensuing peace.

It is a common error to fail to understand that the strategy of war and the making of the ensuing peace are at bottom two aspects of the same thing. For this error causes the peoples to entrust the conduct of war to soldiers who do not understand not only, and to leave the arrangements of peace to politicians who do not understand war. They have tried to under-

Stand the profound truth of von Clausewitz's doctrine that "war is nothing but a continuation of political intercourse." This failure has produced the militarist who supports wars but cannot conclude them and it has produced the pacifist who declaims against wars but does not prevent them. In my next article I shall try to illustrate this proposition by the example of the other war. (To be continued) (Copyright, 1940, New York Tribune, Inc.)

HARD TO SUBDUCE

Warsaw—(P)—Guerilla warfare continues in various sections of Poland, although the German occupation is now several months old.

The Carpathian mountains are a region which lends itself well to sniping and other forms of illegal warfare. The inhabitants have the advantage of knowing every pass and valley.

Around the Kielce mountains, Augustow and Bialowiza, too, guerilla warfare continues.

The German Governor-General's staff seems to suspect that this illegal activity is being conducted from a center, presumably Warsaw. At any rate, recent events in the former Polish capital seem to have been chiefly those of persons who might conceivably belong to an illegal organization.

America's inland waterways bore traffic of 466 million tons in 1939, valued at $17,019,000,000.

Michigan Tax Sale Brings $560,000

3,668 Parcels of Real Estate are Returned To Rolls

Lansing, Mich.—(P)—The state land office board says the scavenger sale of tax delinquent properties produced $560,000 cash in its first eight days, and returned 3,668 parcels of real estate to the tax rolls.

There was no market for 9,943 parcels offered in the big bargain sale of lands that had been seized by the state to satisfy unpaid taxes, the board said. Those items will be re-appraised and offered for sale at reduced prices after the scavenger sale has closed.

The survey, as of the close of business Feb. 16, showed 293 original owners paid $48,327 cash to recover their properties and outside bidders paid $314,977 for 2,879 other parcels of property. In addition to the cash sales, 466 former owners contracted to recover their properties on installment payment plans for a total of $163,775.

Clarence W. Lock, executive secretary of the board said the figures were surprising because the board had expected 75 per cent of the sales would be to original owners. He said many bids were unexpectedly high—as much as 75 per cent of assessed valuation the law forbids sale for less than 25 per cent of 1938 assessed valuations. The sale has been completed in 14 counties, Lock said, and by the end of next week it will be completed in all but 10 of the 25 counties where sales were started.

Judge Probably Had Good Reason to Hurry

Houston, Tex.—(P)—"Excuse me, judge," said the friend who was walking along with Judge Langston K. R. "I've got to go back. I've lost my snake."

"Your snake?" questioned the judge in astonishment. "Where did you have him?"

"In my pocket," mumbled the other as he started searching the ground.

In a few moments he caught up with the judge again.

"Found him," he said, cheerfully. "Stay away from me," said the judge, quickening his steps.

And as he told the story, he reached the courthouse away ahead of his friend.

Winter Holds Little Terror for Motorists

New York—(P)—Motorists use their automobiles almost as much in winter as they do in summer, according to a new report on seasonal motoring trends. Figures on monthly gasoline consumption, compiled by J. J. Newman, vice president of the B. F. Goodrich Co., show that automobile travel is increasing 11 per cent faster in winter than in summer.

"The spread of the winter vacation idea, hard-surfacing of 85 per cent of the national highway network, and the scientific advances made in automobile and tire building during the past decade have combined to boost the average monthly winter consumption of gasoline from 44 gallons per car in 1930 to an estimated 64 gallons per car in 1940, or to within less than seven gallons of the high summer average," the report declares.

Candidates are Obligated at Lodge Meeting

MRS. JULIA FOREMAN, Mrs. William Nowell, Sr., and Mrs. Minnie Davis were appointed to the house committee for the year at the meeting of Women of the Moose last night at Moose hall. A pillow case shower was held in preparation for a card party to be held after Easter.

Balloting on candidates took place and the candidates were obligated. Petitions were presented by the membership chairman for a state dean's class to be initiated in April. Mrs. Clyde Cavert, state dean, of the Academy of Friendship, gave a report on the Mid-Western conference of Women of the Moose in Chicago recently.

The first of a series of "cottage parties" which the chapter will sponsor in the homes will take place at the home of Mrs. Cavert, E. South River street, in March.

Deborah Rebekah lodge completed plans to assist the Odd Fellows lodge with its fifty-fifth anniversary celebration Feb. 23 at a meeting Wednesday night at Odd Fellows hall. Plans also were made to have a joint social meeting with the Odd Fellows the fourth Monday of each month, beginning in March. In observance of George Washington's birthday anniversary, George Jackson told a Washington story.

Cards and refreshments followed the business session and program. Mrs. Harold Thurber acting as chairman of the hostess committee.

Winners at the weekly card party given by the lodge Monday afternoon were Mrs. Iva Fletcher and Mrs. A. B. Weisgerber at bridge and Mrs. Louise Wittman, Mrs. John Moll and Mrs. L. Schwartz. Another card party will be given next Monday afternoon.

The degree of the temple will be conferred at the meeting of Appleton commandery, Knights Templar, Friday night at Masonic temple. The knights and ladies of Sir Knights will have a joint pot-luck supper at 6:30 preceding the individual meetings of the groups. Mrs. Harry Leith is supper chairman and her committee includes Mrs. Carl Schooff, Mrs. John Pierre and Mrs. Carl D. Neid-hold.

Women Voters Will Hear Talk on Trade Agreement Program

Dr. Charles L. Newberry, Milwaukee physician, will address an open meeting of Appleton League of Women Voters at 8 o'clock Monday night at the Vocational school. His subject will be "The Reciprocal Trade Agreement Program." He is widely known particularly in southern Wisconsin for his interest in civic affairs and government policies.

Mrs. James B. Wagg, chairman of the department of government and economic welfare of the league, will be chairman of the program. The Reciprocal Trade act expires in June of this year.

The league, at a meeting Wednesday afternoon at Appleton Woman's club, launched a study program on the subject, "Know Your Town," under the leadership of Mrs. Abraham Sigman, head of the department of government and its operation, assisted by Mrs. Glenn J. Hoffmann. The group decided to concentrate this year on the history and population of Appleton to use as a background for study next year.

Mrs. Alois Liethen and her committee including Mrs. E. W. St. Clair, Mrs. W. H. Bowman, Mrs. W. F. Kelm and Mrs. Edward Steens will gather facts for the survey. The meetings will be held the third Monday of March, April and May. Twenty members attended the meeting yesterday.

Youth Hostels Form Great Lakes Council

Chicago — A great lakes regional council of the American Youth Hostels was formed yesterday by representatives from Michigan, Wisconsin, Ohio, Indiana and Illinois.

Regional officers named were Wendell S. Wilson, director of athletics at the University of Illinois, Champaign, chairman; Stanley Clague, Chicago, vice chairman; H. P. Hansen, Chicago, treasurer; George Treadwell, Chicago, secretary; and V. K. Brown, Chicago, secretary.

Verne Varney, Madison, Wis., William Van Til, Columbus, O., and man; a Roman captain, Lloyd Merkle.

Mary Brandenberg is assistant director; Lloyd Merkle, technician; Doris Werner, stage manager, and Adelaide Ingraham, costume chairman.

The book, "Wayside Surgery," which is experiences of a medical missionary, was finished at the meeting of Ora et Labora Sunday school class of Emmanuel Evangelical church last night at the home of Mrs. John Eickman, 709 E. Roosevelt street. Eighteen members were present and Mrs. Ruth Luebke was leader. The next meeting will be the third Wednesday in April at the home of Mr. Erben Krueger, E. Circle street.

Mrs. F. M. Foor continued reading from the study book, "Joshua," at the meeting of the Reading circle of First English Lutheran church Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Albert Baehler, 508 N. Meade street. The next meeting will be March 6 at the home of Mrs. Earl Ballard, N. Owassa street.

"Africa Calls" was the subject of the lesson at the meeting of the Mission Study group of St. John Evangelical and Reformed church Wednesday night at the home of Miss Evelyn Brandt, 744 E. Eldorado street. Mrs. Alfred Wyro, Miss Helen Elz and Mrs. Herbert Baer took part in the program.

Brotherhood of Trinity English Lutheran church will meet for a 6:30 supper Friday night in the sub auditorium of the church. John H. Graff, instructor in fiber microscopy at the Institute of Paper Chemistry, will be the guest speaker.

IN CONCERT MAR. 1

The only appearance in this section of Wisconsin by Fritz Kreisler, violinist, will be March 1 at the Columbus club in Green Bay. He is said to be exceptionally generous with encores of the kind listeners like best, and always includes his most beloved "Old Refrain."

Fritz Kreisler to Play at Green Bay

Fritz Kreisler, world famous violinist, will make his first and only appearance in this section of the state at a concert Friday evening, March 1, in the Columbus club auditorium in Green Bay. Smaller cities like Green Bay are hearing Kreisler for the first time this year because of cancellation of his European tour due to unsettled conditions abroad. His name has been prominent in the musical world for many years due to the fact that he was a child prodigy who made his concert debut in Vienna at the age of seven. He is a composer also, many of his compositions which for many years were thought to be from the pen of the classical composers having just recently been revealed as Kreisler's.

Kreisler's program at Green Bay will include many of what he terms the "eternally beautiful" musical compositions as well as the more familiar numbers made famous on Kreisler phonograph records. Information or reservations for the Green Bay concert may be obtained from the concert manager, Ralph Mead, 732 S. Clay street, Green Bay.

"Socks" were the thing when Lana Turner recently appeared wearing the latest in sport ensemble. Her three-quarter length cable-stitched socks were complemented by a very short navy wool skirt, lined in bright red taffeta. With the skirt, the M-G-M starlet wore a navy slip-over cashmere sweater, topped by a quilted white jacket boasting novelty carved silver buttons. To lend a finishing touch, the young actress wears treasured oxfords and a tiny French beret.

Dr. Margaret Bell, Ann Arbor, Mich., director.

There are 32 hostels in this region of the organization which provides a place of overnight facilities for persons traveling around the country "under their own power," such as bikers and bicyclists. National headquarters are at Northbrook, Ill.

Green Pastures Sextet to Sing Sunday Night

THE Green Pastures sextet, evolved from the famous Hall Johnson choir, will appear at 7:30 next Sunday night at First Methodist church under the sponsorship of the High School Epworth League. The sextet began its tour through Wisconsin last September, opening at First Methodist church in Milwaukee.

The group will sing several numbers featured in the stage version of "Green Pastures" including "There's No Hiding Place Down Here," "Bright Mansions Above," "Certainly, Lord," "Stealing Away to Jesus," "Couldn't Hear Nobody Pray" and "Old Black Joe."

About 225 persons attended the annual George Washington birthday dinner given Wednesday evening at Memorial Presbyterian church by the Presbyterian Guild. Feature of the dinner was the dancing of the minuet by the Misses Peggy Ogilvie, Jean Holzer, Gloria Dill, Dolores Favez, Arliss Beane and Diana Caramachas and Marvin Kottke, Clifford Daniels, Ben Rohan, Stewart Ramsey, Russell Volkman and Donald Swartz. They were dressed in colonial costumes, as was also Mrs. Harold Heller, who accompanied them at the piano. Miss Olga Heller directed rehearsals for the dance, assisted by Marvin Kottke.

Mrs. Roy Harrison will be in charge of the musical entertainment at the annual musical meeting of the Friendship circle of First Baptist church at 7:30 Friday night at the church. Hostesses will be Mrs. Mary Payzant, Mrs. L. B. Thompson and Mrs. Carl Ebert.

Mother, Mix Your Own Cough Remedy. It's Fine.

Quick, Comforting Relief. Saves Money. Easily Mixed.

This well-known home-mixed medicine costs very little, but it gives delightful, swift-acting relief from coughs due to colds. It takes but a moment to prepare—it's so easy a child could do it. And it saves real money.

Make a syrup by stirring 2 cups granulated sugar and one cup of water a few moments until dissolved. No cooking is needed.

Then get 2½ ounces of Pinex from any druggist. Pour this into a pint bottle, and add your syrup. Thus you make a full pint of really splendid cough remedy and you get about four times as much for your money. It never spoils, lasts a family a long time and children love its taste.

And for quick, blessed relief, you'll say it is truly wonderful. It has a remarkable action. It loosens the phlegm, soothes the irritated membranes, and helps clear the air passages.

Pinex is a compound containing Norway Pine and palatable gualacal, in concentrated form, well-known for its prompt action in coughs and bronchial irritations. Money refunded if it doesn't please you in every way.

Church Club Will Hold Hay Ride Party Friday Evening

A "bring-a-friend" hay ride party will be given by the D.E.E. club of First Congregational church Friday evening. The group will leave the church at 7 o'clock for the ride, and will return to the parsonage for a social hour. Miss Shirley Prink is chairman of the event.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Windisch, 309 W. Eleventh street, Kaukauna, were surprised Sunday on their thirty-first wedding anniversary. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Smith and son, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Golden, Louis Buresch, George Fleischman and Miss Mabel Marzahl, Kaukauna; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Jansen and family and Arthur Werth, Kimberly; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Krueger and family, Neenah; Mr. and Mrs. William Smith, Green Bay; Mrs. Ed Summers, Askeaton; Mr. and Mrs. Mike Van Densen and Joe Van Densen, Menasha; and Miss Adeline Spranger, Appleton.

The next dance of Appleton Manhattan club will take place next Tuesday night at Castle hall. Dancing will begin about 8:30.

Mrs. George Hannagan, 933 E. Pacific street, entertained at a bridge party Wednesday afternoon at her home. Honors at bridge went to Mrs. Roy Hoffman and Mrs. Franklin Osgood. The other guests were Mrs. R. A. Davis, Mrs. Wallace De Vos, Mrs. Wilmer Franck, Mrs. Joseph Verrier, Mrs. C. A. Shannon and Mrs. A. E. Nowak.

Question Box Is Popular Feature of Women's Mission

The question box, a feature of the nightly instructions at the women's mission being conducted this week at St. Mary church, is receiving a great deal of attention from the crowds of women who fill the church to capacity each night. Last night preceding his lecture on "The Home," the Rev. W. B. Pipp, Detroit, one of the missionaries, announced that every question submitted during the week will be giving attention, if only before the closing of the women's mission at 3:30 Sunday afternoon.

There will be a holy hour at 7:30 Saturday evening, and the masses on Sunday morning will be at the usual hours. The women's mission will come to a solemn close with the renewal of baptismal vows at 3:30 Sunday afternoon.

The men's mission will open at 7:30 Sunday evening for a week's session. Individual members of the parish, together with Knights of Columbus and Catholic members of the local Elks lodge are rallying the men for the second week of the mission. Father Pipp is a life member of Michigan lodge No. 47 of Elks. All instructions and services are open to non-Catholics as well as Catholics.

Walter H. Swanson Elected President Of TAPPI for '40

Annual Award of Association Presented to Dr. Otto Kress

HEADS TAPPI

The Technical Association of the Pulp and Paper Industry this afternoon at a luncheon at the Roosevelt Hotel, New York City, elected Walter H. Swanson, Lake road, Menasha, staff superintendent of sulphite mills of the Kimberly-Clark corporation, president.

Swanson, who succeeds Frank Clark, consulting engineer, Newton, Mass., was vice president last year and prior to that served for three years as a member of the executive committee.

Other officers elected are Ralph A. Hayward, president of the Kalamazoo, Mich., Vegetable Parchment company, vice president; R. G. McDonald, New York City, secretary and treasurer. The executive committee for three years includes Albert Bankus, San Francisco, Calif., vice president of the Kronenfeldt company; G. Lamonte Bidwell, Jr., assistant superintendent of the Riegel Paper company, New Jersey; John L. Parsons, research man for the Hammerrum Paper company, Erie, Pa.; and M. P. Chaplin, treasurer of the Chaplin corporation, Portland, Me.

Eureka Utilities Plan Is Approved

Reorganization Granted By Little Rock, Ark., Federal Judge

The 1940 TAPPI medal, given each year for significant contributions to the industry, was awarded at the luncheon to Dr. Otto Kress, technical director of the Institute of Paper Chemistry. The presentation was made by Ernst Mahler of the Kimberly-Clark corporation. Dr. Kress made the presentation of the 1933 TAPPI medal to Mahler. Dr. Kress in his acceptance talk discussed the organization of the Institute of Paper Chemistry and its aims.

Little Rock, Ark. — (U) — Federal Judge T. C. Trimble has given final approval to a plan to reorganize the Eureka Utilities company of Wisconsin.

Outstanding Record

The new TAPPI president is a member of the American Institute of Chemical Engineers and of Sigma Xi, honorary scientific society, eligibility for which is a contribution of original scientific nature. Membership in the institute is based on outstanding work in the candidate's field and he must have held a responsible position for 10 years. Only 300 men are members of the American Institute.

Swanson, who has more than a score of patents to his credit, came to Neenah 13 years ago from the Champion Paper and Fiber company at Canton, N. C. Prior to that time, he worked as a metallurgist in the research department of General Motors and in the United States Forest Products laboratory in Madison where he was a research man. He did his undergraduate work at the University of Minnesota and his graduate work at the University of Wisconsin, and has written his thesis for his doctor's degree and needs only a year in residence to receive the Ph. D.

The new president has published a number of articles on the sulphite process in various paper trade journals and is the author of a book, "While working for his master's degree at Wisconsin, Mr. Swanson translated various technical articles into five different languages for foreign publications."

Fort Wayne Salesman Heads Tin Can Tourists

Tampa, Fla. — (U) — George R. Moudy, a retired salesman of Fort Wayne, Ind., was elected royal chief

Judge Trimble who has conducted numerous hearings in the case since November, 1937, announced yesterday that three trustees would be named for one-year terms to administer properties of the Eureka firm, a subsidiary of the Continental Public Service company.

Revision of the Eureka company's financial structure is the principal provision of the reorganization plan submitted by E. A. Henry, a trustee. Under the plan the bonded debt would be extinguished with the company's common stock, except 25 shares of treasury stock, in lieu of their bonds.

Judge Trimble, in a separate order, authorized Henry to sell the company's telephone properties to the Mid-West States Telephone company of Rockford, Ill., for $10,000 in cash plus the market price for new materials on hand.

The telephone properties are located in Hubbard, Hustiford, Clyman, Lebanon, Noesho and Emmett, Wis.

of the Tin Can Tourists of the World by acclamation yesterday to succeed Frank L. Van Epps of Portage, Wis.

The organization also re-elected R. T. Hamilton of Sand Lake, Mich., treasurer, and elected without opposition C. W. Coppersmith, Lake View, Ohio, secretary; Elliott L. Gyger, Alliance, Ohio, assistant secretary; and J. A. Suprenant, Mantoo, Ill., director for one year.

Two nominations were made for royal vice chief, Lloyd F. Cleveland, Iron Mountain, Mich., present secretary; and R. C. Foster, Canton, Ohio. The election of vice chief will be held Friday.

Urge Bankers to Help Safeguard Their Customers

Zeller Asks Them to Advise, Against Buying Securities From Strangers

Minneapolis — (U) — Vern G. Zeller, director of the Wisconsin department of securities, Madison, Wis., today urged Wisconsin bankers to advise their customers not to purchase securities from strangers.

Zeller spoke at a meeting of Group One of the Wisconsin Bankers association.

Any unusual activity in the transfer of gold mining stocks and oil leases should be reported to the local district attorney, Zeller said. He added:

"One of the greatest problems we have encountered in the department of securities is promiscuous switching of securities, the switch being made on the representation that the customer can secure greater income and have the possibility of appreciation, at the same time giving the customer a small amount of cash as sort of a sweetener."

Would End "Sedatives"

Colonel Alfred J. La Grandeur of Somerset, Wis., told the delegates that it was "high time that sedatives now being administered to the farmers be discontinued and a practical and logical means to improve their financial condition be applied."

Colonel La Grandeur said that since 1921 the Wisconsin dairy farmer has not been able to exchange his American cheese dollar at par. He proposed a price increase as a solution to the dairy farmer problem.

"One cent a hundred pounds, added to the present price of milk, would mean $1,159,909 additional income to Wisconsin dairy farmers," he declared. "If they received a price for milk that would enable them to purchase commodities for home use and farm production at a par value, then farmers selling milk to the American cheese factory would receive an additional $7,500,000 annually, and the dairy farmers of Wisconsin as a whole would receive $28,993,000 additional income annually."

He said that the public should be given a natural cheese which was taken away from them some 20 years ago when a federal ruling was passed prohibiting the interstate shipment of natural American cheese containing more than 39 per cent moisture.

Army Changes are Subject of Talks

Appleton Chapter of Reserve Officers Hears Dryer, Mixson

Members of the Appleton chapter of the Reserve Officers association received information on new advancements and improvements in army organization at a meeting last night at Hotel Appleton.

About 35 men were present at the meeting, including Major Thomas Poland of Green Bay and Lieutenant H. A. Lord, president of the Green Bay chapter.

Lieutenant Colonel Olin G. Dryer of Kaukauna talked on the liaison between artillery and infantry just preceding and during an attack.

Major A. M. Mixson, national guard instructor, compared the traditional "square" division with the new "triangle" or streamlined division the army has recently adopted.

The new division, Major Mixson explained, has 11,012 men and 828 officers, its manpower less than formerly, but it has 1,134 motor vehicles and no horses. Greater mobility is the reason for the change, the major said.

Partial Wage-Hour Exemption Granted Sugar Beet Industry

Washington — (U) — The wage-hour administration ruled yesterday that the cleaning and bagging of sugar beet seed was a seasonal industry entitled to a partial exemption from the wage-hour law.

The determination will be made final within 15 days unless objections are filed.

The exemption request was made by the Western Seed Production Corp., Phoenix, Ariz.

It will permit the employment of workers for as much as 56 hours a week for 14 weeks without payment of overtime pay ordinarily required, for work done in excess of 42 hours a week.

Rainbow Division Will Hold Madison Meeting

A group of Rainbow Division veterans from Appleton and vicinity expect to attend a gathering of their comrades at 6:30 tonight in the Lorain hotel in Madison.

County Clerk John Hantschel, a Rainbow division veteran, reported he had received a letter informing him that General John Johnson, assistant secretary of commerce, will be at the meeting and will address the members.

Cummings Is Speaker At Kiwanis Meeting

Dr. Richard O. Cummings, assistant professor of history at Lawrence college, was the speaker at the noon meeting of the Appleton Kiwanis club yesterday in the Conway hotel. He talked on George Washington's life.

WITHDRAWALS FROM RACE

Delavan, Wis. — (U) — John O'Brien, named at the recent Wisconsin Rapid Democratic conference as first district delegate to the National convention, announced today his withdrawal from the race. He said he would be replaced on the ticket by Mrs. Katherine Muth, Beloit.

DADDY IS TRAVELING, TOO

Six-year-old Cynthia Ann Bremer, who traveled alone from Australia, expecting to be with her father, Robert Bremer of Detroit, learned upon her arrival in San Francisco that he had left for South Africa the day her mother posted a letter in Australia telling him of the daughter's trip. Relatives were located at Johnstown, Pa., and Cynthia Ann was placed in the care of airline stewardess Gwendolyn Godfrey, shown with her, for the trip east.

Gets Seasick Aboard Fishing Boat He's Accused of Stealing

San Francisco — (U) — It's a sad tale, mates—the one about Bill Crooks and how he sailed through the Golden Gate.

The trip really just happened to Bill, because Bill is not a sea-faring man. He doesn't know a binnacle from a barnacle. This is the way the United States Coast Guard tells it:

Bill was wandering around fisherman's wharf at 5:30 a. m. yesterday. The first thing he knew he was in somebody's crab-fishing boat, a forty footed named El Pizo. Now, Bill isn't very handy around boats, but somehow he and the boat drifted out into the morning current. They kept drifting, right out through the Golden Gate on a seven-mile an hour tide.

Meantime, A. Larocca and his sons, who go crab fishing each dawn, couldn't find El Pizo and asked the coast guard to look into things.

Last night the coast guard cutter Shoshone and El Pizo met up somewhere off Drake's bay, about 25 miles from San Francisco. El Pizo was all right, Bill Crooks wasn't. He was very seasick and very sorry.

Today, he was in jail on grand theft charges.

Former Huntington Mayor Is Back in Indiana Jail

Fort Wayne, Ind. — (U) — It's nothing new in his life, but Clare W. H. Bangs, who spent four turbulent years as mayor of Huntington, is back in jail again for the third time as an indirect result of his long fight with privately-owned utilities.

Specifically, the square-jawed Bangs, a former college president and newspaper editor, is charged with civil contempt of court.

The charge grew out of his failure to post an appeal bond or account for $4,300 alleged to have vanished from the funds of the Huntington municipal electric plant, which Bangs established.

Judge Harry Higleman had ordered Bangs to post the bond or account for the money by 3 p. m. yesterday. Instead, the former mayor arrived at the Allen county jail with his baggage, including some heavy underwear "for next winter," and submitted to arrest.

No one knows how long he will have to remain in jail.

"I'll stay until they open the door," he said.

Bangs insists he does not know what became of the missing money.

Knowing Wisconsin's Birds

(This is one of a series of articles prepared by the Wisconsin Wildlife Federation with the cooperation of the Wisconsin Game and Fish Commission.)

The Eastern Kingbird is an abundant Wisconsin summer resident, nesting throughout the state and is everywhere from early May until September, often seen on post or wire.

This bird lives up to its name. It is pugnacious and will attack anything, even hawks and owls, and more than holds its own in spite of its small size. On the other hand, other birds are found nesting near it, apparently undisturbed. The Kingbird's big value to man is shown by the fact that 89 per cent of its diet consists of animal matter, mainly harmful beetles, weevils, grasshoppers, cicadas, rob-

the WORLD of STAMPS

Sweden has honored its most popular national poet, Carl Michael Bellman, by issuing two stamps commemorating the 200th anniversary of his birth in Stockholm, February 4, 1740. Designs show a plaster figure of Bellman executed in the 18th century.

Bellman's poetical style has been considered peculiar. He himself called it musical poetry, and almost all that he has written is intended to be sung. His biggest work "Fredman's Epistles," is a collection of poems on which his fame chiefly rests.

Turkey Honors Atatürk

On the first anniversary of the death of its famed President, Kemal Atatürk, Turkey has released a long set of commemoratives.

Seven of the eight stamps bear portraits of Kemal as he appeared at different times during his life. The eighth shows the home where he lived when he moved to Ankara. Values and colors are: 2½ kurus, bright green (for the house); 3½ kurus, 5k chocolate; 6k red-brown; 7½ red-orange; 8k olive; 12½ blue, and 17½ carmine.

Turkey also has issued a souvenir sheet bearing a single 100k gray stamp that pictures Atatürk in natty evening attire.

The country also has issued four stamps honoring Namik Kemal, national poet. The stamps note the fiftieth anniversary of his death and bear the portrait of the poet. Values and colors are: 6k chocolate; 8k olive-green; 12k carmine-rose; and 17½ carmine.

More On "Famous Americans"

Despite the Congressional feudling mentioned here previously, Hannibal, Mo., held a gala first day sales celebration for the Mark Twain stamp.

Postmaster General Farley was on hand to sell the first sheet of 70 stamps as a permanent exhibit for Hannibal's Mark Twain Museum.

A valentine measuring 34 by 25 inches and 4 inches was the first piece of mail to bear the new stamp—$30 worth. Signed by thousands of Hannibal citizens and illustrated by scenes made famous by Mark Twain, the valentine was sent air mail to President Roosevelt.

More postoffices have been added to the gun-jumpers on the authors' group. El Dorado, Ark., Pensacola, Fla., Springfield, Tenn., Woodville, N. H., and Hammond, Ind., are other towns where stamps were canceled prematurely. Apparently the first-sale date was ignored for Mark Twain and Louisa May Alcott as well as for the Emerson stamp mentioned last week.

Inventories of State Retail Stores Higher

Washington — (U) — Inventories of Wisconsin independent retailers, based on reports from 490 stores in most kinds of business except department stores, last year increased 34 per cent above 1938, the bureau of the census announced.

Department store inventories were 29 per cent higher than a year ago while sales for the same 16 stores were 24 per cent ahead of 1938.

Restaurants reported the largest increase in inventories amounting to 143 per cent which compares with an increase of 33 per cent during 1938.

Next largest increases in inventories during 1939 where lumber and building materials dealers 72 per cent, combination stores seven per cent and general stores 63 per cent.

Pair, Hurt in Crash On Trip, Recovering

Mr. and Mrs. John Greiner, route 1, Appleton, who were injured in an automobile accident enroute to the south about five weeks ago, are visiting and recuperating at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Jeffreys, Santa Anna, Tex. The couple was hurt at Durant, Okla., and spent about five weeks in a hospital there before going to Santa Anna. Greiner suffered a broken leg and Mrs. Greiner was less seriously hurt in the accident. Mrs. Jeffreys, wife of the editor of a Santa Anna newspaper, formerly was of Appleton.

Clapper Suggests Reading Of New Book by Tom Stokes

BY RAYMOND CLAPPER

Washington—Dr. Glenn Frank's program report undertakes to show the way back to power for themselves and to prosperity for the country. As supplementary reading, I recommend a new book by my colleague, Thomas L. Stokes.

The title is "Chip Off My Shoulder." It is the honest and mellow and always absorbing story of a young Georgia newspaper reporter who came to Washington twenty years ago with the inherited chip of southern complacency on his shoulder, and had it knocked off by what he learned while observing four presidents in action.

This is the story, not only of the education of Tom Stokes, but of how Harding, Coolidge, Hoover and Roosevelt used, and were used by, the great political power of the presidency, and of the results, often unfortunate, therefrom.

He arrives in Washington just about the time the Republicans put Warren G. Harding in the White House. "Harding seemed a well-intentioned leader. He was human and friendly. The people saw in him a man much like themselves." The Harding inaugural: "What doth the Lord require of thee but to do justly and to love mercy and to walk humbly with thy God?"

Before relating some of the things that befell the unfortunate President Harding, Mr. Stokes pauses to note that "the desire to do justly, to have mercy, to be humble are not armor enough against the trickery of designing friends, of crafty economic interests... one pities the man; one almost weeps for him."

Barely noticed at the moment was the banker who had been named secretary of the treasury, Andrew W. Mellon. He was "the wisp of a man who dominated the delirious decade, who was, for a time, mightier than presidents. They were but his mouthpieces. He looked like a dried-up dollar bill that any wind might whisk away." Mr. Mellon had a faith. It was that "the richer and upper crust of the economic pie, the better the crumbs that fell to those below." He was a Midas who represented the achievement that America then worshipped. "It made him a master mind, a man of destiny—for a time."

But Mr. Stokes also saw Secretary Mellon in those declining days after he had overstayed his time. "When the depression enveloped Washington like a clammy fog that would not lift but only got heavier, he again became the uncertain little man," says Mr. Stokes. "His economic theories wouldn't fit his words no longer acted like magic. He propounded into the encumbering gloom in vain."

Hoover Tragedy Was His Superhuman Task

Mr. Hoover stood in many ways high above Harding and Coolidge. "He seemed to have a breadth of understanding. He seemed to jump at big broad terms. His intelligence was of a high order and he appeared to be motivated by generous impulses." His tragedy was that the times charged him with a superhuman task: "He made what was probably the last stand for a type of society and government that is gone, the sort I had known as a child, the sort, he had pointed out, that had given him the opportunity to battle his way to the top."

In 1933, Roosevelt: "We were infected with a gay spirit of adventure, for something concrete and constructive finally was being done about the chaos which confronted the nation. We achieved a national unity that was glorious to see. A little sadly I look back upon it."

By 1935 we had senatorial purges and Roosevelt vindictiveness. All the while President Roosevelt was trying to improve the lot of the common man, to give him hope and courage and bread and clothing and shelter. But in himself arbitrary power fixing its clutch. He allowed his administration to condone use of the relief vote in the campaign and to denounce those who exposed it, as happened to reporter Stokes himself, when his Pulitzer-prize-winning expose was branded as false by WPA officials but confirmed by the senate campaign investigating committee.

Defending itself from its foes, the New Deal had come to harden itself about its own ideas and objectives, says Mr. Stokes. "To protect them, it must persecute itself, and in the end, any measure necessary to perpetuate itself was justified... to me it was a sad and disappointing climax to a magnificent and glorious adventure."

Nobody will like this story except Americans who value their country above parties and politicians.

DOCTOR SHORTAGE

Berlin — (U) — Germany has drafted approximately one-third of its doctors for military service.

This has put a heavy load on physicians still practicing at home. To relieve them, retired doctors and women doctors who have left the profession after marrying are being called back to duty.

Authorities have equipped a number of auxiliary hospitals since the beginning of the war to take care of the civil population should other hospitals be unable to handle all the patients. This step was taken because many regular hospitals and sanatoriums were put at the disposal of the army.

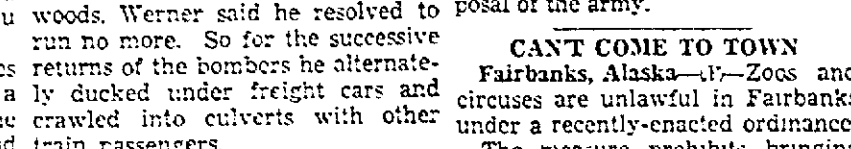

CANT COME TO TOWN

Fairbanks, Alaska — (U) — Zoos and circuses are unlawful in Fairbanks under a recently-enacted ordinance. The measure prohibits bringing into the city or harboring as a pet, captive or in any other manner, any bear, bob-cat, coyote, lynx, wolf, or any other wild, live animal of like nature."

It supplants an old ordinance which prohibited moose walking on the sidewalks, and was designed to end the growing fad of keeping young wolves and other predators as pets.

Movie Land

Its People and Products

By Jimmie Fidler

Pittsburgh — "Do movie stars answer their fan mail personally?" That seems to be the No. 1 query of fans — and it's always asked with a certain air of emulousness, which implies that the questioner feels fan letters are just a bit silly. Well, I thought they were, too, until I looked up the facts and figures.

Fan mail is Big Business. In 1939, screen players received a total of approximately 35,000,000 letters. Figure postage at three cents per letter (as a matter of fact, many come via airmail) and credit Uncle Sam with a stamp sale amounting to $1,050,000! The paper and envelopes used represent a $700,000 sale for American stationers and paper companies. According to studio records, at least one letter writer in every five requests—and receives—a star photo, at an estimated material and labor cost of fifteen cents each. And there you have another million!

The studios employ a total of 125 persons who do nothing but handle fan mail. At least a hundred others are employed for the same purpose by individual players, at an average salary of about $30 a week.

It may be that a great many silly fans write silly letters—but you can't call the aggregate result of their efforts silly.

And now to answer the question, "Do movie stars answer their fan mail personally?" Be sensible. There are stars who receive five or six thousand letters a week. Isn't that answer enough?

MUTTERINGS: I'd feel more like applauding Jack Benny if Jack Benny felt more like applauding young entertainers struggling for a break. Silly notion: Rudy Vallee without a new heart-throb. "Always a bridesmaid but never a bride" fits Irene Dunne's record of four best-performance nominations and no prizes to a "T." Wondering muse: Do you suppose John Barrymore has an advertising tie-up with the Distillers' Association? Ode to mayhem: "Don't you think you'd look better with less shoulder-padding, Mr. Donlevy?" Growl: I miss Marie Wilson's screen comedy. Advice to Artie Shaw: Be careful of walking down dark alleys with M-G-M executives. If convenience is considered, the industry might move to Reno, rather than New York.

Hollywood's most embarrassed lady is Hlona Massey. After suffering from a "crick in the back," she went, the other day, to a chiropractor. He gave her the usual thumps and wrenches and she left feeling better—so much better that when she entered a drugstore the following afternoon and saw—as she thought—her chiro sitting at the fountain, she took time out to express her gratitude. Tapping the man on the back, she enthused: "Whenever I need an adjustment, I'll come to you." He turned around, proved to be a complete stranger—and Hlona is still blushing!

Public Service Test

To be Held at Madison
Madison — An examination to obtain an eligibility list for secretary of the public service commission will be held here Feb. 29, the bureau of personnel announced Wednesday.

About 48 persons will take the written examination. Oral tests will be given later. Applications were filed by 83 persons, but nearly half of them lacked qualifications.

The personnel board ordered a new examination several weeks ago after a previously selected list of candidates had been exhausted by commission rejections.

Calmer Browy, former director and now acting secretary of the commission, was among those eligible to take the pending exam. He failed to pass the previous oral test.

Darboy Church Group Plans Open Card Party

Darboy—Group No. 3 of Holy Angels parish will sponsor an open card party at the Darboy hall Sunday evening. The usual games will be played and a lunch will be served. The committee in charge: Mrs. Dan Wallace, chairman; Mrs. John Wolf, Mrs. Mary Thon, Mrs. George Sprangers, Mrs. John Wolfinger, Mrs. Oscar Hartzheim, Mrs. B. Kildon, Mrs. Jake Hunk, Mrs. C. Block, Mrs. Peter Hartzheim, Mrs. Mike Lunjak, Mrs. Charles Seidel, Mrs. Anthony Marx, Mrs. Henry Jochemann, Mrs. Joe Hopfensperger, Mrs. Peter Behling, Mrs. Robert Coenen, Mrs. Lawrence Kauer, Mrs. Raymond Wittmann, Mrs. C. Vandenberg, Mrs. Reynold Hopfensperger, Mrs. John Kortenhof, Mrs. Anton Jochemann and Mrs. Joseph Hartzheim.

Mr. and Mrs. Anton Simon, Mr.

James Hilton—author of "Lost Horizon," "Goodbye, Mr. Chips" and "We Are Not Alone"—is noted for the humanness of his characters. They truly hold the mirror up to nature, being neither all good or all bad. The person in the old melodramas labeled as the villain, Mr. Hilton says never did exist and never will. Warner Bros. commissioned the author to do the screen play for his novel, "We Are Not Alone." Paul Muni is starred in it as the "little doctor" who while absolutely without blame is convicted of the murder of his wife, a part played by Flora Robson. The innocent dancing girl who is executed with him, is played by Jane Bryan.

Pythian Sisters Dedicate Bible

Special Ceremonies are Held at Meeting in Waupaca

Waupaca — Special ceremonies were a part of the regular meeting of the Pythian Sisters. Wednesday evening when a white leather Bible for the altar was dedicated in memory of a deceased member, Mrs. Jessie Larson. "Memories" was sung by Mrs. L. S. Peterson, who was accompanied by her son Jimmie on the clarinet and Mrs. Grace Bonikowski at the piano.

Miss Phyllis Davidson received the degrees of the order after which refreshments and a social hour were enjoyed by the members. Mrs. Reid McLean and Mrs. Earl Fabricius were hostesses.

Mrs. L. S. Peterson returned Tuesday from LaCrosse where she attended the Republican convention. Mrs. Peterson was reelected member of the state central committee on which she has served for eight years. Others from this county who attended the convention were Mrs. Alice Larkee and Attorney J. Kyle Anderson, Waupaca; Mrs. F. C. Wipf, Iola; District Attorney Paul Roman, Manawa.

Judge A. M. Scheller heard objections to probating the will of Mrs. Amelia Ferg, Manawa, Wednesday in county court. Attorney Paul Roman represented the estate while Brunner and Brunner, Clintonville, filed the objections for some of the heirs.

A military conference of the Reserve Officers association was held in the Hardware Mutual auditorium at Stevens Point Wednesday evening for members in the Stevens Point-Wisconsin Rapids area. This included representatives from Wausau, Neillsville, Marshfield and Waupaca.

Sound movies of truck drawn units and field artillery showing how they function, were features of the conference. Major James C. Hughes, Wausau, was the guest speaker.

Attending from Waupaca were Colonel A. E. Woody, Major Myron Barnes, H. E. Peterson, Milton Laux and Major Waldo Hanson, Wisconsin Veterans' Home.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward E. Browne have gone to Winter Park, Fla., to spend the remainder of the winter. Mrs. L. J. Stadler entertained the St. Mary's Sodality at her home Wednesday afternoon with more than thirty members present. Assisting hostesses were Mesdames Lenora Holzer, Katherine Atkinson, Norman Barrus and Phylomena Gintiti. The afternoon was spent in sewing for the society and making plans for the food sale which will be held Saturday in the Behnke meat market. Mrs. George Kehl and Mrs. William Clausen are in charge of the sale.

A social time was followed by refreshments served by the hostesses. On Friday afternoon the three circles of the First Methodist church will meet. Circle one, Mrs. Alfred Peterson, leader, will be entertaining at the home of Mrs. Myron Godfrey with Mrs. Walter Nelson assisting hostess. Margaret circle, Mrs.

COMING TO APPLETON THEATER

Picture a man with no family, no friends, no personal connections whatsoever; with no money, no position and no past. Picture such a man, if you can, confessing to a startled court about to try an innocent man, who even gets his name from a calendar and calls himself Joe Monday, on trial for his life and refusing to reveal why he committed the crime or speak in his own defense.

Such is the theme of the co-feature opening Saturday at the Appleton theatre, "THE MAN WHO WOULDN'T TALK," featuring Lloyd Nolan (in the title role), Jean Rogers, Richard Clarke, Onslow Stevens and Eric Blom.

Heading this big two bit program will be "BROTHER RAT AND A BABY," with Priscilla Lane, Jane Bryan, Jane Wyman, Wayne Morris, Eddie Albert, Ronald Reagan and baby Peter B. Good.

Michigan to Check Tourist Facilities In Resort Centers

Lansing, Mich. — To protect the health of tourists in Michigan, Dr. H. A. Moyer, state health commissioner, is assigning a field staff to survey sanitation facilities in resort centers.

A staff of 10 will devote a month and a half to a check-up on the purity of drinking water and the adequacy of toilet facilities. Dr. Moyer instructed the group to work through local health departments, offering to assign a staff man to work with any department that found itself overburdened.

"Should any of these departments fail or refuse to cooperate, howev-

Clever Player Lays Trap to Induce Errors

In many deals there may be no way to fulfill the contract unless there is an error by the defense. If that is the case the clever player makes such an error as persuasive as possible.

The bidding:

South	West	North	East
1 diamond	1 spade	Pass	2 clubs
2 no trump	Pass	3 no trump	Pass

West gave careful consideration to the bidding and decided that a spade lead, considering his own lack of entries, had no future to it. He did not want to lead a diamond up to declarer's bid and therefore hit upon the excellent opening of the heart queen. East could not afford an encouraging discard and was forced to play the five. But when declarer disclosed his weakness in the suit by allowing the queen to hold, West continued with the heart deuce, East playing the ten.

This sequence of plays was very informative to declarer. Since the opening leader could not have held Q J 10 2, and would not have opened the queen from the Q J without the ten or nine, it was extremely likely that he had opened a short suit. Declarer therefore won the second round and, with no great hope of getting a 4-3 break, tried out the diamond situation by leading the ace, king, and queen, discarding the one heart and one club from the dummy on the latter two rounds. As he had feared, East failed to follow to the third round, discarding a spade. Now the declarer played the ace of spades, after which he finessed against the queen, cashing both the king and jack, East discarding two clubs.

With a perfect count on West's hand (he had shown six spades and five diamonds, therefore could have had only two hearts) declarer now threw East on lead with a heart and, exactly according to declarer's hope, East slipped. After cashing his two heart tricks he led the ace and then the ten of clubs. The latter was allowed to ride to dummy's jack, and declarer's king accounted for the ninth trick.

It should have been the easiest thing in the world for East to find the proper defense after cashing his two hearts. All he had to do was lead queen of clubs, which would have preserved the A-10 for a tenace over dummy's jack. Nevertheless, South deserved credit for taking the only chance to make his contract.

My Neighbor Says—

Prune back snowhill hydrangeas to mere stubs if you wish to have a profusion of good blooms next fall.

Whites of eggs will not fall after they are whipped if a pinch of cream of tartar is added while they are being whipped.

Don't neglect to oil your vacuum and electric washer. Oiling keeps them in good condition and they wear longer.

Don't allow fire to spread under shrubs and bushes when burning grass if you wish them to bloom this year.

To sprout sweet potatoes cut them in half. Place flat sides up in a shallow bowl filled with water. Keep in the sunshine. After several weeks a vine will develop.

When boiling asparagus place in an upright position in boiling water so that the stalks come and tips steam as it takes much longer to cook stalks than tips.

Wool that has been knitted and ripped out may be made to look like new if treated as follows: Fill a pot or kettle with water, and let it get very hot. Place a towel in a colander, nest the yarn on the towel and cover with ends of towel. Place all over the kettle of hot water and steam until the wool is fluffy.

Large sheets that have become worn in the middle should be torn in halves and what were the two outer edges joined together. The shabby part, which is now the outside, should then be trimmed away and the raw edges neatly hemmed.

Beauty and You

—by PATRICIA LINDSAY—

ROSEMARY LANE shapes her nails with an emery board and applies cuticle oil with an orange stick before she massages her hands with oil and slips them into gloves for the night.

I hope, of course, that you take every precaution to prevent catching a cold, or being confined to bed with a case of grippe. But if you do, make good use of the hours you spend waiting for the fever to subside and the sniffles to go.

Tub baths are out of the question when you have a cold. You will be told to keep well covered in a room of warm temperature with some fresh air coming in steadily. While your fever rages do nothing but rest.

But when it subsides make your entire body satin-smooth with thorough massage. Have sympathetic hands rub your body well with heated olive oil or jellied mineral oil. If you live in a frigid climate, invest in a couple of those long-sleeved, high-neck woolen nightgowns which are the current vogue. Wear one after your massage and your body will virtually get an oil steaming under the covers.

Your feet will respond gratefully to a good rubbing with a special foot lotion or cream, after which you slip them into white woolen tennis socks which you must keep on during the rest of the day and all night. You will be surprised how this simple treatment will soften calloused skin.

But don't make the mistake of throwing off the covers when you start to get very warm. You must persevere to rid yourself of fever, and the more poisons discharged through your pores the better. You may feel a bit messy, but no more uncomfortable than you would in a Turkish bath, and the

Your Hands Too

Treat your hands as you did your feet. Massage them with a non-sticky formula, apply cuticle oil around your nails and slip into a pair of cotton gloves. A few hours will work miracles.

Naturally you will not want your Prince Charming at your bedside while you are being thus lubricated—but he shouldn't be there if you have a cold. Why make two suffer instead of one? Your freshened beauty upon recovery, will make him think you are a wonder girl!

Harder a Kiss Is to Get, The More a Boy Values It

BY DOROTHY DIX

Dear Miss Dix—Will you please answer these questions: (1) How old should a girl be before she uses lipstick? (2) How old before she goes out on dates? (3) What is the age limit for boys? (4) Is it proper for a girl to sit out in a car talking to boys? (5) How late should a girl of 14 be out on school nights? On week-ends? (6) Is it proper to talk to a boy who goes to your school but to whom you have not been introduced? (7) Is it right to ask a boy to a party you are giving? (8) How can you give a good impression of yourself to a boy and not let it be obvious? (9) If a boy asks you for a good-night kiss and you don't know him very well, should you give it to him?

TWO ANXIOUS GIRLS.

Answer:

(1) There is no limit on the use of lipstick. You can use it anywhere from the cradle to the grave, provided you put it on moderately and artistically. The reason so many people object to lipstick is because most girls plaster it on as if they were painting a barn door and make their mouths look like a cut of raw butcher's meat. If you are going to use cosmetics, for pity's sake learn how to do it.

(2) A girl of 14 is old enough to begin stepping out a little to school parties and going out with boys of her own age.

(3) Most boys are girl shy until they are 15 or 16.

(4) It depends on the time and the place. In the daytime and if the car is parked on the street or in some public place, there is no objection to a girl sitting in a car talking to a boy. But she can't do it at night without being gossiped about. When a boy brings you home at night, hop out of the car and go into the house.

(5) No girl should be out at all on school nights. She should be at home studying her lessons and going to bed by 10 o'clock. On week-ends 12:30 is the latest she should be out. Young girls need their sleep.

(6) Yes, girls and boys who go to the same school do not need any formal introduction.

(7) Certainly it is proper to ask any boy you like to your party. A lot of any girl's popularity and success in society depends on her mother entertaining for her.

(8) You can show a boy you like him and enjoy being with him and appreciate the good times he gives you by listening to him talk with an interested expression, by paying him a tactful compliment now and then, and by appearing to have the time of your life when he takes you out. But you mustn't run after him by calling him up on the telephone and turning down other boys for him.

(9) Be very chary of your kisses and don't hand them out to every boy who asks for one. Boys make fun of girls and hold them cheap who make their lips a free lunch counter for every Tom, Dick and Harry. The harder a kiss is to get, the more a boy values it.

Should She Tell of Secret Marriage?

Dear Miss Dix—I met a very nice fellow and we fell deeply in love with each other and after several months we were secretly married. He joined my church afterward on his own accord. During his instructions he found out our mistake in being married secretly and we promised each other not to say anything to any one about it until we were able to be married in the church. Unfortunately he met with an accident and I promised him on his death-bed to never tell of our marriage. He has been dead over a year now and it is still our secret, but it is constantly haunting me. Should I confess now, or continue to keep our secret? If I do tell, will I be forgiven for breaking my promise, and will it cast any darker shadows over my life than there are now? If I tell, it will be a shock to the community boys are close to the time when their natural inclinations will lead them away from home. It is good to have a place prepared for them. It is fine to have schools open, teachers ready, for boys who want to work, play musical instruments, play games, study new subjects, make experiments, or just enjoy being with other boys.

The community needs to provide places for young men, half grown boys, where they can feel free of home routines and still be healthily employed in interesting ways. Evening classes will not teach them to leave home nights. They are certain to go out at night. Nature sees to that. BY ANNE ADAMS

"Never too young to head the fashion," says this chic frock for a very small belle. Depending on the fabric you use, Anne Adams' Pattern 4396 makes either a dress-up style or a school dress. The long, double-front panels curve out smartly on top to follow the line of the side bodice sections. Buttons may be sewn on for accents, while lace is dainty at the round neck and the neatly tucked sleeves. For an everyday style, let the back skirt form just a simple panel. But when you make up the party version, have a dashing shirred panel for "backfulness." If you like, the entire back skirt and the side front dress sections may be contrasted in the pattern.

Pattern 4396 is available in children's sizes 4, 6, 8, 10 and 12. Size 6 takes 2 yards 33 inch fabric.

Send fifteen cents (15c) in coins for this Anne Adams pattern. Write plainly size, name, address and style number.

mixed colors. My husband likes all white best, and so I'd rather have white too.

I agree with you that towels, half of one pattern or color and half of another, have an odd-lot effect not to be compared with a complete set of towels that match. And since you are getting your supply—meaning that you have no odd leftover supply to use up—your problem can easily be solved by their markings if you choose the same design for them all. Choose any one of the three letter monograms.

A question of interest to all who love beautiful as well as practical household furnishings is the problem of how to devise a way by which matching bathroom towels can be marked so that husband and wife can easily tell their own and yet not have their marking introduce either an odd color or make it necessary to unfold the towel to find a name tape in a corner of the hem.

This question is sent me by a bride: "Do you think it a sensible idea, dear Mrs. Post, to have half of our bathroom towels marked with by husband's initials, and half with my own, for the reason that we shall have only one bathroom and will not be able to afford the luxury of having a fresh bath or her slaves, who brought it into the presence of Caesar as a gift.

His curiosity was naturally intrigued, so he paused to see what sort of present the lady had sent. When the rug was unfolded, there lay the tempting Cleopatra. "Wouldn't she have made a star in a short-tempered, nervous type of client. I have seen the same procedure employed in a shoe shop. If a woman enters and sits down, the clerk may lay her shoes aside but leave her with two or three new ones to look over while he finishes with another customer.

Even if she grows restless, she cannot walk out, for she is unable to find her own shoe.

Old Psychology Of Salesmanship
A generation ago there was more concern over such tricky devices for attracting attention, or holding the nth degree in their effort to contract prospective clients. They resorted to quite far-fetched methods.

History, of course, offers some precedent as you readers may recall from Cleopatra's futile efforts to get an audience with Caesar. Apparently the famous Julius was surrounded by so many obdurate secretaries, that he was a difficult person for a saleswoman to contact.

So Cleopatra had herself wrapped inside a beautiful rug. The latter was rolled about her, and then placed on the broad shoulders of one of

Chapter 36
The Skies Fall

The feeling of being partly anesthetized began to pass. Had not always been like this—unreasonable, absurd, even a little childish? She felt as though she were dealing with young Robert in one of his impossible moods. There was a maternal note of patience in her voice as she answered him.

"Pats had no children, Eric. Besides—Pats and I are two different persons. I haven't the slightest intention of leaving Bob. Whatever I may have felt for you, Eric, years ago—"

"Sue!"

"Whatever I may feel for you even now," she went on bravely, "it isn't enough! I know now it never was enough. I—let me be perfectly honest with you, Eric, I was deeply infatuated with you then. I think that's the right word. Enough of the old feeling lingered to make me—to stir me when I saw you this afternoon. I suppose you'll always be to me a figure of romance. I don't mind at all telling you that I shall never feel toward Bob as I did—as I do toward you. But that's not love, Eric, or if it is, it's not the right kind of love."

"Listen," she bade him smiling. "Bob and I have been through almost every kind of experience that can come to a husband and wife. We've been through them together. We've had money and we've been without. We've lived in houses with parquet floors, and houses with boards so splintery I've had to cover them with carpets clear up to the walls. I've borne Bob's children—"

He was very white and he put up a hand for silence.

"The simple—and usual—analysis of the married woman, Sue, New York, she had a sense of Don't, for heaven's sake, try to dramatize them. Any little clerk and his wife go through what you are describing. But that's not love! There's just one significant and important thing in all you've told me; that is, that you've never felt for Trenton what you feel for me. That pulls the underpinning from the admirable domestic structure you've been showing me, my dear. It's all over with—it's in the past. As for the children, if Trenton objects to your having them all the time, surely a compromise can be arranged. Half the year with him, half with—"

"Let's not have any more non-sense about this, Eric," she bade him crisply. "I shouldn't even dream of leaving Bob—much less divide the children's time between us. The sooner you understand that the easier it will be for us both. Shall we go now?"

"Extra Sweet!"

It was good to be home again! The children greeted her rapturously. Bob was so very glad to have her back. She had been away only a week but there was a tidy budget of domestic news for her.

Robert had lost a front tooth. Little Susan—"and Dad was supposed to be watching her, Mother, 'cause I was at Sunday School"—had wandered away and was gone until nearly five in the afternoon; had been discovered in the park, overlooking the river. "And Dad was so scared he didn't eat any dinner at all, and Susan promised cross-your-heart-and-hope-to-die she'd never do it again."

"Allen was here day before yesterday," Bob told her later. "Spent the night. I thought he'd hand towel every time we take a bath, let alone every time we wash our hands. I don't happen to like grams in the book in the linen department in which the initial of your last name is put in the center and is therefore much larger and more conspicuous than the first and middle name initials on either side of the dominating last initial. On half of the towels, the two small initials would be yours, and on the other towels the small initials of those of your husband.

For example, the big K in the center and then a little A at the left and a B at the right stands for Anna Blake King. A little F, big K, little W stands for Frederick William King. Having the same outline, the monograms give exactly the same impression of a dominating K set in a square or round or diamond or whatever shape. Then for guest towels you can have the same design exactly but with the K alone, or if this doesn't work out GT (guest towel) might take the place of the missing first and middle initials.

If French markings—or that which is now done to perfection by machine—is beyond your budget, remember that cross-stitch has always been an accepted marking for towels in smartest houses, and that every one who can sew at all—even a young child—can do this embroidery beautifully. Crossbar and pattern initials can be found at all embroidery counters.

Housemother In Sorority Has Problem

Dear Mrs. Post: Lately I have taken a position as housemother in a girls' sorority house and live here all the time. Each house has a housemother. The other "mothers" have their visiting cards engraved "Mrs. Mary . . ." and when I went to the printer to order my cards he claimed that "Mrs. Mary . . ." was all wrong and said if I doubted his word, to write you.

Answer: The printer is right. But whether you choose to set yourself up as an arbiter in the face of the others who are wrong, or whether you too prefer to be wrong and follow the set, is something that you will have to decide. Personally, I could not, were I in your place, have my cards engraved other than as Mrs. John Smith.

Mrs. Post is sorry she can no longer answer personal letters. She is glad, however, to have many printed slips on a variety of subjects to offer to her readers. Today's slip is "Table Linens." Be sure to send a three-cent stamped self-addressed envelope with your request to Mrs. Post, in care of this paper, P.O. Box 150, Times Square Station, New York, N. Y.

NO IRRITATION TO HANDS
IN NEW SUDS FOR DISHES

Women find new type suds gives dishes and glassware amazing sparkle, yet hands stay soft because it is not a soap. Entirely different from even the finest soap or soap flakes because it contains no acid or alkali. If you have ever been ashamed of coarse, red hands . . . if you have ever wondered what robbed your fingers of their dainty smoothness . . . chances are it's the alkali from the soap you use for washing dishes. That's why thousands of women are switching to Vel, the new soapless suds perfected by Colgate that contains no acid, no alkali to irritate the skin. It's startling now you can wash dishes time after time without a trace of the irritation to hands resulting from soaps. Vel is so easy on hands, women joyfully report it "takes the curse out of dishwashing."

Glassware and china sparkle with glittering highlights, because Vel—unlike soap—cannot form soap-scurf to streak glassware and dishes. Vel is also the ideal suds for silks and woolsens because it works perfectly in cold water and because it can't leave soap-scurf to make fresh colors dull and frowsy-looking. Buy Vel today at any grocer's. Made and guaranteed by Colgate-Palmolive-Peet Company.

Children's Education Must Go Beyond Book Learning

BY ANGELO PATRI

Long ago we learned that children did not thrive on book learning alone. They needed other things along with the book lesson. They needed to draw, paint, hammer, sing, play an instrument, cook—in short they needed to share in all the activities of the community because life went on during school hours, and all these activities were an expression of that life. So special subjects were added.

At first this was forty minutes a week. Children went to the shop and worked for forty minutes and got mighty little done. I have known it to take a school term of shop work to get a wagon box made, and it was not sand-papered even then. Little girls "took" sewing and once a week, for forty minutes, toiled over a soiled bit of gingham, nine by four inches, making a model of a gingham apron. When they were through they were through with the apron. It was useless. Most of the schools in the land decided that this was not the way to do the "Specials."

Public Education

Now more time was allowed at a sitting. Instead of doing sewing or working on wood, or printing once a week, the pupils did this sort of work every school day for ten weeks straight. That helped. But it meant an adjustment of the program that some schools could not make.

Teachers' time, space, time schedules would not always allow this. Then some schools, especially high schools, began putting their Specials on evening programs. That bothered some of the mothers.

"My boy plays in the school band and loves it. Now they have put that class on the evening program and he goes to band practice every week four nights a week. Isn't that teaching him to leave home nights? Won't it do him a lot of harm by teaching him to go from home for his entertainment at night?"

Band Practice

That would not seem to be so from my experience with boys who play in bands. They report for band practice, but in a couple of hours of association with boys they like, practicing, listening to the teacher, playing together the music they enjoy, planning for school concerts,

Bulldogs 'High' For Final Game

New London Sees Win Over Kaws and First Conference Title

N.E.W. CONFERENCE
New London	9	2,818
Shawano	9	3,750
Neenah	8	3,727
Kaukauna	7	4,636
Menasha	4	7,364
West DePere	2	9,182
Clintonville	0	11,000

FRIDAY'S GAMES
(Final Contests)
Clintonville at Neenah.
New London at Kaukauna.
W. DePere at Menasha.

NEW LONDON—With the squad apparently in A-1 shape, Coach Harold Isaacson and his New London High school basketballers will lead an invasion on Kaukauna Friday night in a siege to capture the school's first conference championship.

Advance sale of tickets at New London, as originally planned, was canceled and no reserved seats will be sold, school authorities announced Tuesday night. While Kaukauna's interest may be somewhat dampened by Shawano's victory last week, it is expected that New London crowds will take over the best seats early.

On paper the Red and White holds a slight edge all around although the Kaws will have the advantage of the home floor. In 15 games New London has won 13 and lost 2; Kaukauna has lost 7 out of 17. New London has collected 438 total points to opponents' 304; Kaukauna has made 504 against opponents' 425, granting New London an edge of 5 per cent. Kaukauna averaged 29.6 points per game, New London 29. In conference play New London averaged 31 points per game to opponents' 22.4.

Get Their Free Throws
On free throws the locals have netted 62 per cent of their tries against 45 per cent for opponents. They made 118 out of 189 while opponents got 78 out of 173. In non-conference play their percentage was 80 against 30 per cent for opponents.

In individual scoring the boys are pretty well divided with Ross, Pies, Melkjohn and Hamberger sharing and Poppy trailing with about one-third as many points.

The regular five will start the battle and the full quota of reserves will be on hand. The Bee squad will play a preliminary at 7 o'clock and the feature game will start about 8:15.

After a last workout last night, the squad will rest today.

KAUKAUNA READY
Kaukauna—With Kaukauna slated to make its best showing in the Northeastern conference in years another large crowd is expected Friday evening as New London comes to town. The latest turnout of the season saw the Shawano Indians play last week. New London fans are expected to break the mark.

New London must win to gain an undisputed title. A Kaukauna victory will give the locals second place, with New London, Shawano and Neenah tied for first. The first three would have 9 and 3 records, with the Kaws holding an 8 and 4 margin.

The Kaws have been reviewing offense and defense this week, taking things easy after the strenuous game against Shawano. With nothing to lose Krumm's men will shoot the works against New London, and a wide open game is in prospect.

The Bulldogs will show a five with no outstanding players but one which has played together for years and makes up in team work what it lacks in individual brilliance. Last year Kaukauna defeated New London here, 16 to 14, and earlier this season lost out on the Bulldog floor.

The visitors have been troubled with illnesses the last two weeks, barely edging out West DePere on the Phantoms' court, but winning handsily over Menasha last week. Kaukauna beat DePere 48 to 24. New London is expected to be at top strength for Friday's game.

Kaukauna's starting lineup will show Joe Bloch and Don Biscak at forward, Bill Alger at center and Karl Giordana and Junior Swedberg at guard. This five played without substitution against St. Mary's, Neenah and Shawano, and is likely to do so again against the Bulldogs.

Kimberly Will Sell Tournament Tickets

Kimberly—Henry Patch, manual arts teacher at the high school has charge of the ticket sale for the regional Class B basketball tournament at Menasha which starts Mar. 6 and continues to Mar. 9. Kimberly high will participate in the tournament. Tickets were given out and tournament plans were made out at a banquet of high school principals, coaches and newspaper representatives at Hotel Menasha Tuesday.

The price for adult season tickets will be $1.25. Adult reserve seats will sell at $1.75. Students can buy season tickets for 75 cents. On Wednesday and Thursday nights, four students will be admitted for a season ticket. The remaining two nights call for single admissions.

Season tickets will not be sold at the door. Single admissions for Wednesday, Thursday and Friday evenings will be 50 cents while the championship night, tickets will sell for 75 cents. An additional 25 cents will be charged for reserved seats.

Byron Nelson to Regret Picking Up At Western Open

Pros Feel That He Should Have Finished Regardless of Score

BY EARL HILLIGAN
CHICAGO—(AP)—For a very personable young man whose biggest assets as a golf star appeared to be his ability to "take it" under any kind of playing pressure, Byron Nelson's action in quitting the Western open tournament cold came as quite a shock to a number of the boys.

Nelson, after turning the first nine in 40 strokes last Monday, knocked his ball off the No. 10 green and announced he was through—thereby creating what probably was the first instance in golf's history that a national open titleholder walked out of an event comparable in importance to the Western open championship.

Veteran professionals in this sector are agreed that Nelson, the biggest "draw" of the Western open, owed the tournament sponsors something more than a pickup. Professional golf, it seems, long has held to the tradition "play it out" and history contains more than one instance of a golf pro picking up during a tourney in a moment of anger—and regretting it for years to come.

On Jan. 21, 1938, Sammy Snead went five over par playing the first nine at the Pasadena open at Brookside course. When his game got no better he picked up at No. 12, said "to hell with it" and walked off the course. He apologized later, said he was very sorry. But he took a verbal beating from the boys for quite a spell.

Tommy Armour, the "Silver Scot," picked up on the second hole of the 1935 national open tourney at Oakmont in rain and a near-hurricane. Tommy needed two pars on Nos. 17 and 18 for a juicy 90. He quit and ever since has been sorry about it.

Ky Laffoon, who in 1934 was one of the year's hottest players, shot a 77 at South Bend, Ind., in the 1935 Western open and packed his bags. Ky probably has often recalled that Willie Goggin also had a 77 but stuck around and wound up in second place.

Wega Hoping for Tie in C. W. Play

Needs Win Over Manawa In Case Waupaca Tops Marion High

Weyauwega—Final games in the Central Wisconsin basketball conference will be played Friday evening, and with Weyauwega only a game behind the league leading Marion quintet, the concluding contests are highly important. The remaining first division berth also is a struggle, with Manawa having a chance to tie Waupaca for third place.

Marion must defeat Waupaca at the latter city Friday night, in order to earn a clear championship title. Should Marion lose and Weyauwega win over Manawa in another crucial contest at Weyauwega, the Indians and Marion would be tied for the lead. The third game finds the two tailenders, Iola and Amherst, playing at Iola.

Weyauwega handed Marion its first defeat of the season in a hard fought battle last Friday evening by a 28 to 27 score. Iola won a close decision over Waupaca 35 to 23, and Manawa retained its mathematical chance to earn a first division berth by winning over Amherst 25 to 12. Conference standings:

	W. L.	Pct.
Marion	8	1.889
Weyauwega	7	2.778
Waupaca	5	4.556
Manawa	4	5.444
Iola	3	6.333
Amherst	0	9.000

Friends Feel Shyness Is Costing Ott Big Contract

BY MORTIMER KREEGER
NEW ORLEANS—(AP)—Mild-mannered Melvin Ott, the quiet little New York Giant ballplayer with the loud bat, declared today he couldn't be a big-mouth even if it meant a higher standard of living for the Ott family.

"Maybe it would help me get a better contract sometimes," he conceded, with an air more of politeness than of conviction. "Some fellows seem to think so. But I just can't talk about myself that way. I feel if a man goes on playing pretty good ball he'll get credit for it."

Modest Mel has sometimes been a headache to sports writers and reporters who wish he'd do something colorful besides setting National league home run records.

His sincerest admirers criticize his failure to advertise his wares verbally, and assert that in such circumstances as his present salary difficulties a little publicized big-headedness might swing a few votes in the Giants' front office where a cut in his $20,000 stipend is reported under consideration.

MAKE ARRANGEMENTS FOR SHIOCTON CAGE TOURNAMENT NEXT WEEK

Shiocton High school last evening played host to coaches and principals of schools entered in the district Class C basketball tournament at the village next week. Shiocton board of education officials, village officials and representatives of the community club also were guests at the dinner and heard Monroe Manley, high school principal, outline plans for the meet. Eight schools are entered, all of them:

Little Nine conference schools. They are Winneconne, Hortonville, Freedom, Wrightstown, Shiocton, Seymour, Brillion and Hilbert and represent both sections of the conference.

Russ Bauers Will Join Pittsburgh

Wisconsin Hurler Won't Sign Contract Until After Testing Arm

Pittsburgh—(AP)—The Pittsburgh Pirates announced today that Pitcher Russ Bauers, as yet unsigned for 1940, will train with the team at San Bernardino, Calif., to "test" whether he has gotten rid of pitching arm "trouble."

The 24-year-old right hander hurt his arm last season, and as a result pitched only one complete game in eight starts.

Bauers, who has been with the club three years, wrote from his home at Lakewood, Wis., that he wants to convince himself "decisively" his arm is "fully recovered" before "going through another season like that of 1939." A recent examination showed no "trace of injury or abnormal condition," he said.

"In view of the circumstances that makes the case of Bauers different from that of a holdout, Manager Frank Frisch decided to waive his rule against taking unsigned players to camp," the club announced.

Bauers, one of the Pirates' 14 hurlers, was notified to join the club's advance guard at Chicago Saturday night and accompany them to San Bernardino for the "desert test."

ALLEN FEELS GREAT
St. Petersburg, Fla.—(AP)—John Thomas Allen, veteran Cleveland pitcher, talked freely today about what he expects to do for Manager Oscar V. L. in the coming baseball season but he wouldn't discuss his contract.

"My arm feels great," he declared. "I think I can win 15 games this year without much trouble. The soreness which bothered me last year is gone and I'm anxious to get started."

Allen would neither confirm nor deny reports he was one of the Indians' holdouts.

"I'm not saying anything about contracts," he declared. "You'll have to get that kind of information from the front office."

W. Wenzel smashed a 266 game, including a 23-pin handicap, and M. Ebben, carrying a 36-pin handicap, showed a 617 series for individual honors during Western league matches at Elks alleys last night. Idaho scored high team marks with a 1,068 game and a 2,903 series. California lost two games to Idaho but retained its league lead.

Apostoli Wants to Make Comeback Against Hostak

BY EDDIE BRIETZ
NEW YORK—(AP)—Arrivals from Dixie say the fair grounds track at New Orleans will not open next year and that old Jefferson park will be brushed up for a revival. . . . Ambers is 5-8 over Al Davis tomorrow night and that's about the way it looks from here. . . . The Oklahoma Aggies cagers (22 straight wins) are as good as invited to the invitation tournament in the Garden next month. . . . Only thing is, pressure may be brought to keep 'em home for the N.C.A.A. meet.

Fred Apostoli wants to make his comeback start against Al Hostak in Seattle. . . . Since he took charge of the Dodgers in 1938, Larry MacPhail has spent $430,500 for playing talent. . . . Attention, printers: Peter Hawrylew, the Michigan State trackster is thinking of changing his name.

The Very Ideal!
Certainly Mike Jacobs is not going to call off the Buddy Baer-Valentin Camp. . . . He fought because Valentin was knocked down six times and beaten by Jack Marshall the other night. . . . # Bakers to Meet Bertrand Quint

Rockets to Close NEW Loop Season Against Truckers*Battle Clintonville Friday Night and St. Mary March 1

NEENAH—Coach Ole Jorgensen's Neenah High school basketball team closes its 1939-40 Northeastern Wisconsin conference season here Friday night, against Clintonville, but before the Rockets enter the regional tournament at Menasha March 6, 7, 8 and 9, they will meet St. Mary in a non-conference game at Neenah March 1.

The Rocket cagers, however, will be nearly as interested in the New London-Kaukauna game Friday as their own, for that game will determine whether Neenah will have a share of the conference title this year. If Kaukauna knocked off the Bulldogs, Neenah will be tied for first place with New London and Shawano.

The Neenah outfit will be heavy favorites to defeat Clintonville, which hasn't won a conference game this season. In the first contest between the Truckers and the Rockets, the latter quintet scored an easy 39 to 19 win.

Neenah High school's championship reserve team will be after its fourteenth straight victory against the Truckers reserve squad. The tilters, which have won 11 conference games, defeated the Clintonville seconds, 30 to 15, in the first game this season.

Coach Jorgensen probably will start Buxton Kettering and Ed Winkelman at forward, Captain Harland Hesselman at center, and Richard Miller and Julius Hertzfeldt at guards, but Charles Kettering, Luka Christofferson, Hoyman and Haufe undoubtedly will see plenty of action.

M. U. Tracksters are Favored Over Spartans

Milwaukee—(AP)—The Marquette university track team, undefeated in dual meets for more than a year, will be cut to stretch its string of victories to eight when it meets Michigan State college in the new million-dollar Jensen fieldhouse at East Lansing tomorrow night.

Because of a dual meet victory this season over Notre Dame, which in turn defeated Michigan State, the Hilltoppers were heavily favored.

Appleton and Green Bay Teams on Armory Court Tonight

THE Elm Tree Bakers, set back on their heels by a defeat at the hands of the Clintonville Auctioneers at Clintonville Tuesday night, will attempt a new string of wins at the armory at 9 o'clock tonight when they meet the Green Bay Bertrands. There will be a preliminary game at 8 o'clock featuring Company D and the Green Bay Squires.

The Bakers attempted to get several of the outstanding down state teams to show here this week but failed. The Bernacchi Drugs, Kenosha, are at an Indianapolis tournament and the Kadine Jewelers, Milwaukee, also were unable to appear. They may be brought here later.

Green Bay will show a group of former college performers from Green Bay and vicinity. Cliff Osen, formerly of Lawrence college, is a forward on the team and Larry Fitchett is said to have attended Carroll. He also is a forward. A third front lineman is Bob Kennedy, formerly of Oshkosh Teachers, and reported to be a clever ball handler and a dead shot.

At center, the Bertrands will have Moose Muzzolini, 6 feet, 4 inches, who hails from the U. of Michigan and concentrates on rebound shots.

Other big fellows will be at the guards. They are Boots Capbella, a consistent scorer and an all-city player; Gass, a clever left-handed shot; and Bob Scheer, former Green Bay East player.

Against this group the Bakers will send their best lineup. Lilleg and Godharte will show at the forwards, Catlin or Krause will work at center, and Wagner, Sellers or Wonsler will be at the guards.

The evening will open at 7:40 with the Central Papers seeking their first victory over the Wire Works. The Wires have only two wins.

In the 9:30 game, the Lutz Ice team and the Valley Sporting Goods, tied for second place, will clash. Each has won seven and dropped two and the winner will have a chance of tying or overhauling the Sorensens if it can maintain the pace.

Red Sox Pennant Hopes Will Rest on Its Hurling Staff

Sarasota, Fla.—(AP)—Just how far the Boston Red Sox get in the 1940 American league pennant chase, Manager Joe Cronin believes, depends entirely on the pitching staff. As for the rest of the lineup, which will include young Dominic D. Magglio, the Red Sox boss and shortstop says it's "all set."

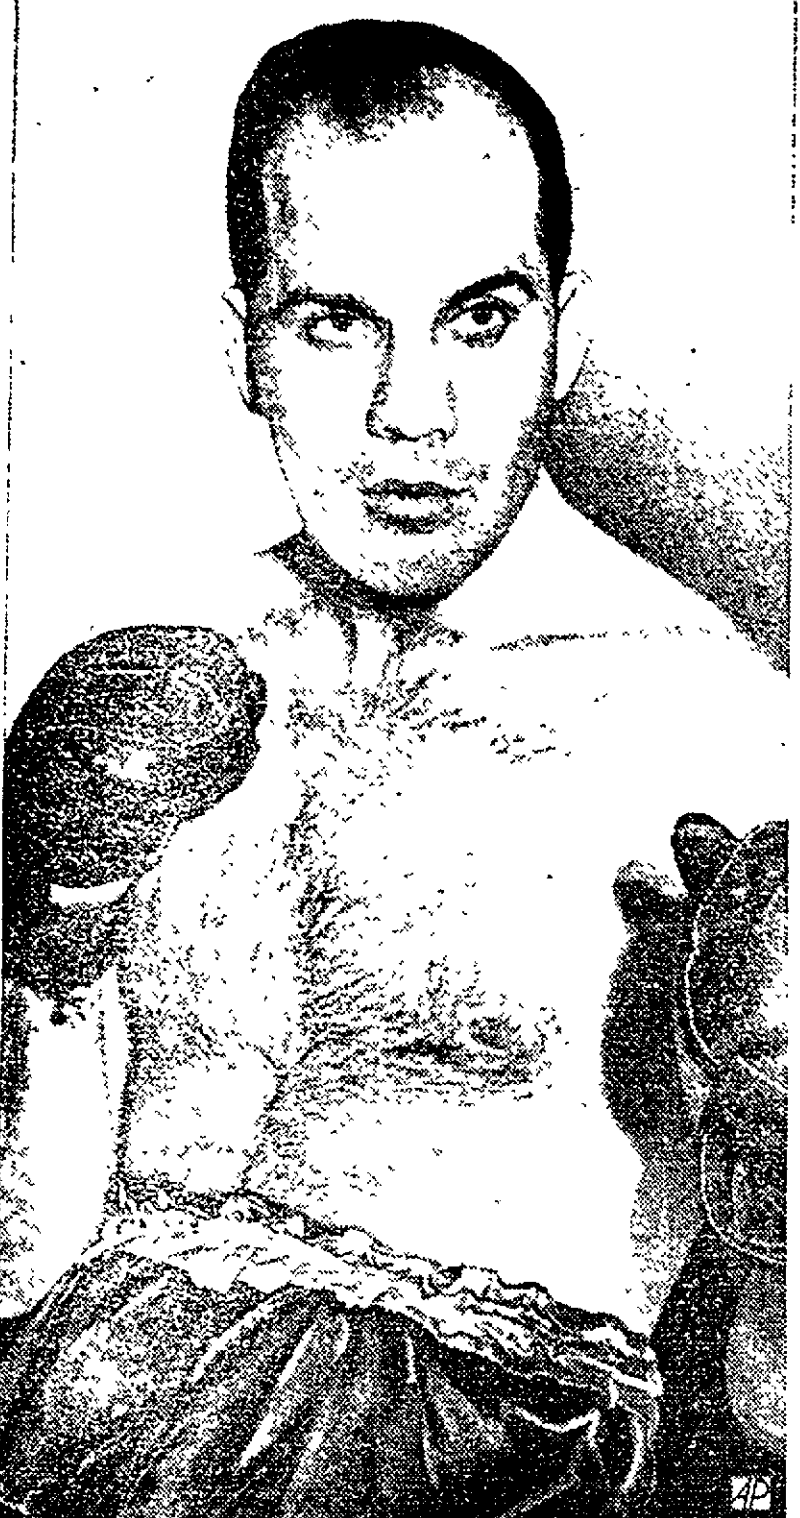

"With fellows like Jimmy Foy, Bobby Doerr, Ted Williams, Jim Thayer, and Roger Cramer, we have plenty of power," Cronin explained, "but it's a great catching staff, but it's a good enough. Everything depends on the pitching."

"Everything," said Bill Butler, and he has been of Minneapolis were the best looking pitchers in the major league last year, the Boston Red Sox needed, "and we've got them both. Lefty Grove appears able to go on forever, and we're counting on him again."

Dom D. Magglio, brother of the New York Yankees' Joe, will start in left field, replacing Joe Vasmak, walked out of the league and sold to Brooklyn.

"We're going to give young D. Magglio the starting position," Cronin said. "He can field and throw and the only question is whether he can hit major league pitching."

Cronin said the club would bring the largest squad in its history to camp here. The first training session is scheduled March 1.

St. Joseph, Keshena	1 7 .125
St. Mary's, Oshkosh	1 8 .111

SCHEDULE
Friday—St. John, Little Chute at St. Joseph, Keshena.
Feb. 28—St. Mary's, Oshkosh at St. Peter, Oshkosh.
Feb. 29—St. John, Little Chute at St. Norbert, DePere.
March 8—St. Joseph, Keshena at Lourdes, Marinette.

LAST NIGHT'S SCORE
Menasha St. Mary's 33, St. John 20.

LITTLE CHUTE—St. John high cagers dropped a 33 to 20 decision to St. Mary's Zephyrs of Menasha in a Valley Catholic conference game which eliminated the Dutchmen from title consideration. The Zephyrs lost only one game while the locals have dropped two. The win gives the St. Mary squad the title which it shared last season with St. John.

The contest was bitterly fought with the exception of the third period when the Zephyrs outscored the locals 11 to 3, and sailed away with the game. The initial period ended 7 to 3, the second period 16 to 11 and the third period 27 to 14. The final period had the teams battling on even terms with 6 points each. In the final minute, both coaches sent in reserves who failed to score.

To say that St. Mary's is 13 points better than the Dutchmen is correct for the score was the same at Menasha in the initial meeting of the two squads.

The contest was well played and cleanly fought in spite of the rivalry and the officials, Christoph and Swiston, had it under control at all times. Fourteen fouls were called on the winners and 11 on the losers.

The Zephyr's lanky center, Johnson, was a thorn in the Dutchmen's side all evening and counted four field goals and the same number of free throws to total 12 points. He was followed by Grisbach, who scored six of the ten charity shots awarded him.

Menasha Takes Lead
Play opened as Grisbach converted on a foul. Koehn entered the count and Schuler broke away to loop a field goal. Johnson tipped in a missed charity toss and followed with a free shot as Harold Derks scored a shot for the Dutchmen. Resch converted on a free toss and the period ended 11 for the Zephyrs out in front, 7 to 3.

Resch converted on a free toss and Koehn added a long shot after a couple of the Dutchmen added two points to the local count with a nice pivot shot. Koehn broke in to be fouled and converted on one of two attempts. Resch gave the winners a bucket on a side shot. Koehn scored a free toss and Harold Vanden Heuvel a field goal to send local houses roaring but Burnhart and Grisbach bucketed for the visitors.

Conny Vanden Heuvel scored from the corner at the second period ended with the Zephyrs in the lead, 16 to 11.

Johnson totaled two free shots and a one-handed under the hoop to start out the third period as Derks and Jim Vanden Heuvel scored charity shots for the locals. Resch and Connie Vanden Heuvel paired off with converted free shots to send the score to 14 and 21. The Dutchmen faltered for a few minutes and Resch looped a long shot, Johnson a short shot and Grisbach a sleeper to score 6 points before the Dutchmen gathered their wits and stopped the rally.

Menasha Battles West DePere on Bluejays' Floor

Outcome Will Have No Effect on Northeastern Standings

MENASHA—Menasha High school cagers will close their Northeastern Wisconsin conference season Friday night when West DePere High school invades the Menasha gymnasium. The result of the game will not effect any change in the relative position of the teams in the conference.

However, it will make a difference in the percentage columns for a victory would give the Bluejays five wins and seven defeats for the conference season, a creditable record for a young, inexperienced team. West DePere has managed to defeat only Clintonville and would like to gain an even break with the Bluejays. Last year they managed to edge the Menasha team at Menasha 17 to 16 in a dull game.

The game will be the last conference encounter for four members of the Menasha High varsity squad. They are Gaylord Thompson, Henry Spice, Wilbur Merkley, and Douglas Anderson. For members of the varsity are juniors while the other four are sophomores. The juniors are Henry Osiewalski, Fred Landskron, and Richard Landskron while the sophomores are Ray Wipovich, Gus Block, Roland O'Brien, and John Skalowski.

Ray Wipovich is the leading scorer of the team with 79 points in 11 conference games. Gus Block has accounted for 56 points while Richard Landskron has scored 50 points. Reserve teams of the two schools will meet in a preliminary game. The Menasha varsity scored a 31 to 23 victory over West DePere in the first game between the two schools. Skenadore is the chief threat of the West DePere team although Van Sistine and Marquardt also are dangerous scorers.

Expect 14,000 at Badger Fight Card

Madison—(AP)—Double-deck steel galleries and first floor bleachers in the University of Wisconsin fieldhouse will carry a capacity load of about 14,000 persons tomorrow night at the boxing match between Wisconsin and West Virginia university teams.

At the athletic department ticket office, where warning of a probable sell-out precipitated a buying rush several days ago, an official said all applications for reserved seats could not be filled and that fire regulations prevented temporary expansion of accommodations.

University boxing programs have drawn enthusiastic support from residents of Madison and other state cities for several years, but never before has the demand for tickets been so great this early in the season. In recognition of their hometown drawing power, however, all but one of the Badgers' seven 1940 matches were scheduled here.

NEXT GAMES

Carleton at Ripon.
Coe at Grinnell.

Saturday, February 24
Carleton at Beloit.
Monmouth at Lawrence.

Monday, February 26
Cornell at Carleton.
Drake at Grinnell.

Tuesday, February 27
Knox at Monmouth.

RIPON defeated Lawrence in their only athletic last week and thus needs only one victory in its remaining two games to insure itself at least a tie for the Midwest Conference basketball championship. The Redman put on a late rally to take the game from their state rivals who have been on the short end of more than their share of close battles this season. Ripon has yet to play third place Carleton at Ripon and then close with Beloit on the road, not a comfortable assignment.

The week was typical of Midwest conference play with five of the six games being decided on a margin of five points or less. Having the most bearing on the league race was Beloit's win over Grinnell and Coe's defeat by Carleton. Cornell and Lawrence each dropped two, the former to the Illinois members, Knox and Monmouth.

The first ranking game of the coming week will be Carleton's invasion of Ripon on Friday. The Carls are the only team to hold a victory over the Redmen. Coach Diebold's men move on down to Beloit the following night and return home to close their season against Cornell on Monday. Grinnell is at home to Coe on Friday. Lawrence finishes with Monmouth at Appleton on Saturday and the Illinois battle between Monmouth and Knox will take place on the Scott's floor on Tuesday.

2 Marquette Cagers Suspended by Coach

Milwaukee—(AP)—Ralph Armsden and Bill Stafford, regular center and guard respectively on the Marquette university basketball team, have been suspended for the remainder of the season.

Coach Bill Chandler announced suspension of the Hilltop mainstays for "violation of training rules."

Neither player was expected to be available for the last two games of the season, against Michigan State Saturday night and Notre Dame March 2.

Chandler promoted Bill Rogers, a junior, to the center spot vacated by the 6 foot 4-inch Armsden. Stafford's position is expected to be filled by Chuck Hammer, who has seen considerable action, or by Bob Von Bereghy, Matt Reichl, or Jimmy Reavley.

Waupaca Aroused Over Apparent Freeze-Out Of Tourney Competition

WAUPACA—With Waupaca High school students and school officials indignant and upset, Waupaca this week faced the possibility of being shut out of tournament basketball competition.

When the Menasha tournament was limited to six teams this year instead of the usual eight, there were seven teams up for consideration Kaukauna, Neenah, Menasha, New London, Clintonville, East DePere and Waupaca. Because an odd number was entered, Waupaca was assured a playoff game with Clintonville, entry from the Northeastern Wisconsin conference.

Then, to save mileage for two teams, Clintonville was transferred to the Shawano tournament, Kimberly was scheduled to play at Menasha and Waupaca dropped. Among the teams in the Northeastern circuit Menasha, as the weakest, offered to play Waupaca in a pre-tournament elimination.

The board of control of the state interscholastic athletic association, however, held that it would be unfair for a host town to chance eliminating itself and thereby ruin its own tournament. The easiest thing was the decision to eliminate Waupaca after buck passing here and there by the athletic board of control and Paul F. Neverman, Marinette, the high school sports czar of Wisconsin and secretary of the board.

When the pre-tournament coaches' and principals' banquet at Menasha Tuesday night, passed over the Waupaca situation with regret, Principal George Hendrickson wired Neverman asking that Waupaca at least be granted opportunity for an elimination contest with some team now entered in the Shawano, Menasha, or Wisconsin Rapids tournaments.

If such an elimination contest is not granted it is almost certain Waupaca will file formal protest with the athletic board of control. The toughest thing is not only that we feel we've been dealt with unfairly, but that we've let the kids down," Coach Bill Cullen said yesterday. "Students, both players and fans, look forward to the tournament as colorful culmination of the basketball season. The squad has worked hard all season, has stuck together and worked together with the picture of the tournament in their minds."

"It is hard to face the kids and say there'll be no tournament—and not be able to explain to the students any reasonable reason why Waupaca is not invited."

"To build up the confidence of young people throughout several months and then suddenly to break faith with that confidence, and for no apparent reason, is more important than any tournament game. I hope we will at least be granted an elimination contest as a face-saving gesture."

Such a playoff for tournament entry probably would be against Menasha if at Menasha, against Clintonville if at Shawano or against Manawa if at Wisconsin Rapids.

Midwest Ski Jumpers At Ishpeming Today

Ishpeming, Mich.—(AP)—One hundred of the Midwest's top-ranking ski jumpers gathered here today for the 53rd annual Washington birthday tournament at the Ishpeming Ski club.

The tournament, one of the nation's oldest ski classics, has attracted riders from Minnesota, Illinois, Wisconsin and Michigan.

Outstanding feature of the meet was expected to be a duel between Ted Zoberski of Ironwood, Mich., and Sverre Fredheim, of St. Paul.

Walter Nelson of Strum, Wis., is defending champion in Class B, and Walter Brattlund, Iron Mountain, is senior class champion.

Minor Sports are In Full Swing at Senior Hi School

John Noffke Takes Lead In Archery Tourney With 214 Points

INTRAMURAL and after-school sport activities are in full swing at Appleton High school.

The first archery shoot was held yesterday afternoon with John Noffke totaling 214 points to take the lead. Jack Herberg counted 186, Fred Reid 160, George Herberg 158 and Lyle Wolff 129. The archers each shot six arrows from angles at distances of 35, 42 and 46 feet.

The first meeting of the badminton group was held yesterday afternoon with 60 boys and girls in attendance. Badminton, which replaces tumbling on the program, is under the direction of Miss Carol Anderson and William C. Pickett.

Wrestling To Begin

The two social dancing groups will be discontinued next Thursday and wrestling activity will begin under the direction of Wallace Cole and John Mack. About 50 already have registered for the sport.

Ray Kraft's team took honors in the first round of the noon hour basketball league with a record of five wins and no defeats. Members of the quint are Eugene Clark, Warren Smith, Harold Stumpf, Merle Meyer and Kraft. Bob Steudel's cagers finished second with four victories and one loss while Sylvester Maule's team took third with three wins and two losses. Teams captained by Art Weber and Fred Tresize tied for fourth with two victories and three defeats apiece and Norbert Roland's team was last with five losses.

The boxing tournament will get underway Tuesday. Nearly 50 boys are expected to compete for school honors.

Chicago Bruins, Oshkosh Stars to Clash Saturday

Both Teams Want Win to Assure Themselves of Playoff Berth

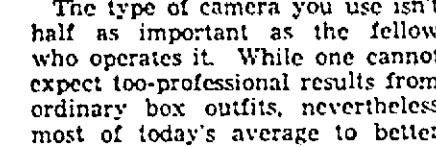

OSHKOSH — The Chicago Bruins, who come here Saturday evening for a National Basketball league game with the Oshkosh All Stars, will be battling for a victory in the hope of gaining a playoff berth in the Western division series after the close of the regular schedule to determine which team will meet the Eastern division winner in a series for the league championship.

Chicago is now in third place behind the Sheboygan Redskins and Oshkosh and a win for the Bruins over the All Stars would close the gap between those two teams by one full game and put the pressure back on Oshkosh which must make one more road trip, meeting both the Goodyears and Firestones at Akron, O., next Monday and Wednesday, before returning home for its final league game of the season against the Firestones, March 2.

Sheboygan will have played three of its four games remaining by Saturday night and whether or not it will dethrone Oshkosh as the Western champion and assure itself of a playoff spot will be just about definite by then although the remaining Oshkosh and Chicago games will still prove a factor in the race. Sheboygan played at Chicago last night; is at home to meet the Detroit Eagles, the league's leading team, tonight; and on Saturday will play at Indianapolis.

Oshkosh will be battling for a win Saturday to even the series with Chicago this season at two all. The Stars lost the first one in the Windy City by 28 to 19, won the next game at home by 53 to 43 and lost to Chicago there by 38 to 33.

Chicago will be led by big Mike Novak, formerly of Loyola, who is 6 feet 9 inches in height, and who is the league's fourth high scorer. He will oppose "Lefty" Edwards in the pivot position and will attempt to hold down the scoring of the Oshkosh center, who last week set a one-game scoring record of 29 points in the game with Sheboygan.

SHOOTING WINTER PICTURES By Ormal I. Sprungman

If you prefer baking in June to shivering in December, winter filming probably won't appeal to you. But if you don't mind knocking about with numb fingers among knee-deep drifts, you can uncover some interesting filming subjects in snowtime.

The type of camera you use isn't half as important as the fellow who operates it. While one cannot expect too professional results from ordinary box outfits, nevertheless most of today's average to better priced cameras will take acceptable pictures in competent hands.

One essential to frosty filming is a filter. These are available in different colors and intensities, but the medium yellow or red filter will be best for beginners.

If your snow scene seems whitewashed, slip on a filter, open your lens aperture another half or full stop, and note how reduced glare brings out detail in the snow.

Those strikingly beautiful skiing silhouettes taken against a dark sky were probably made with a deep yellow or red filter. To duplicate such a shot, put your subject atop the hill crest, then take a camera position part way down the slope and shoot upwards with your filtered lens. If your camera will stop ski action, your picture will be even more interesting.

Nor need winter filming be limited only to day-time studies. Take the silhouette subjects mentioned, but pick a dark night. Set the camera on a tripod, open the shutter, then walk around to the opposite side of the hill out of camera view, and set off a flashbulb or flash powder. Then return to your camera and close the shutter.

The finished print will show the dark subjects beautifully outlined by the backlit flash, and even the nearby trees will look as though they were snowflooded.

Trips Help
Most outdoorsmen steer clear of trips. They're cumbersome. They pinch your fingers. Sometimes, they collapse. Nevertheless, pictures clicked with a camera mounted on a tripod are often better than those made with the hand-held camera.

Hendrix Winner Over Bill Tilden

Pro Netters at Miami Meet; Walter Senior In Semi-Finals

Miami Beach, Fla.—(AP)—Regardless of whether Don Budge scores his expected victory in the $2,500 southeastern professional tennis tournament, there is a new challenger to the kingship.

Art Hendrix of Annapolis, Md., 25-year-old Naval academy tennis coach who had a habit of embarrassing the top amateurs a couple of years ago, swept the aging Bill Tilden off the court yesterday.

Hendrix already had dusted off eighth-seeded Joe Whalen, a former national pro champion, and his win over Tilden sent him into the semi-finals, where he probably will get a crack at Budge.

Today Budge meets John Nogrady of New York, conqueror of the veteran Karel Koryth. The winner will tackle Hendrix.

Second-seeded Fred Perry faces Frank Perich of New York in the remaining quarterfinal to qualify a semi-final opponent for Walter Senior of Chicago.

Kenosha Drugs Lose At National Tourney

Indianapolis.—(AP)—The Indianapolis Stewart-Warners eliminated the Bernachi Drugs of Kenosha, Wis., 53 to 32, in the semi-finals of the national independent basketball tournament here last night.

The Bernachi trailed by a 20-15 margin at the half. Sallie Suddith, former Martinsville High school star, scored 15 points for the winners, while Moose Nelson, one-time Creighton University player, paced the Kenosha club with 17.

In the other semi-finals match the Athletic Round Table quintet of Spokane, Wash., defeated the Bismarck, N. Y., Phantoms, 25 to 22.

The championship game is scheduled for tonight.

Sheboygan Redskins Beaten in Chicago

Chicago.—(AP)—The Sheboygan Redskins, never able to gain the lead, dropped a 41 to 34 decision to the Chicago Bruins in a National Professional Basketball league game here last night.

Despite the defeat, Sheboygan team remained at the top of the Western division standings with 14 victories and 11 losses.

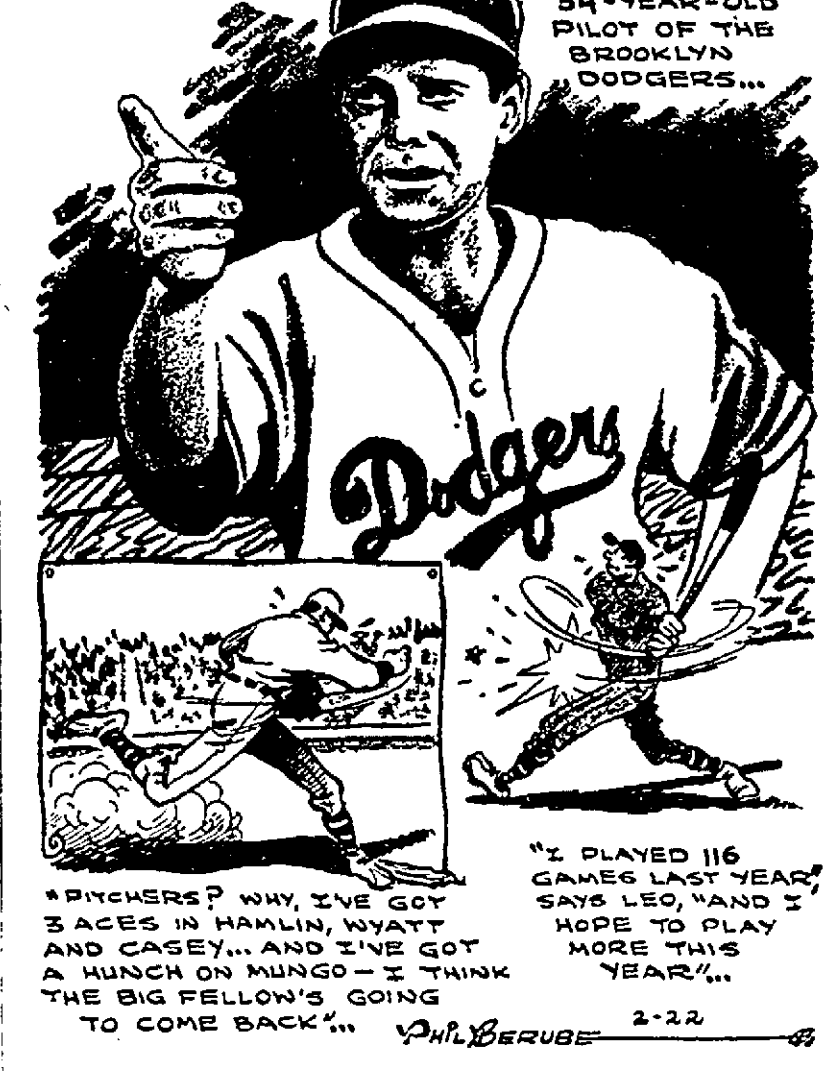

Wibs Kautz made 18 points for the Bruins on seven baskets and four free throws while George Healy counted nine points for Sheboygan. The Bruins held a 22-14 edge at the half.

Bobby Riggs, Cooke Seeking Indoor Title

New York.—(AP)—Bobby Riggs, first top-ranking United States player since Bill Tilden's day, to appear in the tournament, opened his bid for the national indoor tennis championship today by meeting Dick Shipp of Harrisburg academy in a first-round match at the Seventh regiment armory.

Two other members of the "first ten" Don McNeill of Oklahoma City and Elwood Cooke of Portland, Ore., are the strongest threats to Riggs' title aspirations.

LOOKING AHEAD by Phil Berube

Pegler Continues Attack on Racketeers in Labor Offices

BY WESTBROOK PEGLER
New York.—After a legal struggle lasting three months Willie Bioff, the fugitive Chicago vice-monger and labor racketeer, has turned up in his old home town to finish a sentence of six months for pandering in 1932. Bioff claims to have rehabilitated himself in the service of labor, with a capital L, and poses as a martyr, done in by "the moneyed interests and communists," which is a new combination. It is further contended on his behalf that he was but a boy of 21 when he was convicted.

The facts disagree with Bioff. He was arrested in Chicago as late as 1932, at which time he was a member of the Capone mob, and his reference from the Chicago police department as of November, 1939, said, "He is a thoroughly vicious hoodlum and has always been with gangsters." His associates are vice-mongers and gamblers. His career in the union racket was very profitable, for he is a wealthy country gentleman, with an estate near Los Angeles, and in the winter of 1938 he sailed aboard the liner Normandie in accommodations for two which cost $2,700. And when he was arrested in 1932 he gave his age as 24, not 21.

Bioff never was elected to any position in the International Alliance of Theatrical Stage Employees and Moving Picture Operators, which he represented in California, but was appointed to the position of personal representative of George Browne, the union president, after a fight between racketeers for control of this promising organization. Browne has not repudiated him and, indeed, has not offered a word of comment for publication on the affairs of his union since the lid blew off.

Since then—in fact, only last week—Mr. Edwin Lahey, an authority on labor unions, writing in the Chicago Daily News, has offered some interesting background on another "personal representative" of Mr. Browne—to wit, Nicolo Cirrella, alias Nick Dean, a Chicago hoodlum, stickup man and restaurateur. In the primitive days of the movies they were known as nickelodeons or nickelodeens, and that appears to tell us how Cirrella came to be known as Nicolo Dean and Nick Dean. Dean's night club in Chicago is described by Mr. Lahey as a resort of cafe society, and is billed as "the aristocrat of restaurants."

The recorded history of Nick Dean begins in 1915 when he was a callow youth of 20. Mr. Lahey reports, "In December of that year he pleaded guilty of robbery and was placed on probation for a year. He was a busy little bee during that period of probation, sticking up joints all around town."

Mr. Lahey lists four stickups in a brief period. In the fourth venture one of Nick's comrades shot a man twice, and Cirrella went to Pontiac reformatory on charges of assault to commit murder and assault to rob. Other charges were waived, with leave to reinstate. He was in Pontiac from Sept. 21, 1916, until Jan. 1, 1919, when he was paroled, only to be returned on May 21, 1920.

"No Dispositions" is a Routine Entry in Chicago
During this parole period, Mr. Lahey says, the distinguished labor leader was in trouble on four charges of larceny and one of burglary, but was not convicted, and in 1922 he was indicted for the robbery of a bank messenger. Other defendants were convicted, but Cirrella's indictment was quashed.

"In 1924," says Mr. Lahey, "Cirrella was arrested and was identified by William Russell, a postal messenger, as one of the members of the Fontana gang who had beaten him and escaped with $150,000 in currency. The disposition of this case does not appear in the records."

"No disposition," incidentally, is a routine entry in the Chicago police and court records. Why cases are not disposed of nobody apparently ever troubles to inquire. Bioff's pandering case was a "no disposition" job until it was discovered that he still owed time.

Bioff and Cirrella, or Dean, entered the I.A.T.S.E., or stagehands and movie studio workers' union, about the same time, following the assassination of Tommy Maloy, a labor racketeer and extortionist, in 1935. Since then, under the presidency of Mr. Brown, personally represented by Bioff and Cirrella, the union has grown so large in numbers and so powerful by intimidation that last fall Browne and Bioff made the grave mistake of trying to snatch all the actors' unions. After that it was intended, if all went well, to snatch the writers' unions, too. But the actors put up a shrill squawk and the C.I.O. unions in Hollywood also made propaganda against Browne and Bioff.

The American Federation of Labor, however, like Ferdinand the bull, just sat under a tree smelling the flowers, and to this hour has done nothing about anything, leaving the rank and file and the public to believe that criminal racketeers are not unwelcome at the head of the table in labor's house.

Mrs. Comiskey Begins Fight for White Sox

Chicago.—(AP)—Mrs. Grace Reidy Comiskey, widow of the former owner of the Chicago White Sox baseball club, took the offensive yesterday in what she said would be a "determined fight" to prevent the sale of the club by the First National bank.

Under the terms of the will of her husband, J. Louis Comiskey, who died last summer, Mrs. Comiskey received the income on one-half the estate, valued at more than $2,000,000. Today, in probate court she renounced rights to that share and applied for dower rights of one-third the estate outright.

The action was interpreted by her attorney, Thomas J. Sheehan, as strengthening her position in the battle against the club's sale for should she be granted one-third she would become an important stockholder in the property.

Man Is Killed When His Car Hits Parked Truck

Hartford, Wis.—(AP)—Blaise Gundrun, 40, of Slinger, was killed last night when his automobile struck a parked truck near the intersection of Highways 41 and 60. Dr. Raymond O. Frankow, Washington county coroner, ordered an inquest for next week.

Murray Claims Trade Pacts Hurt Dairying

Washington.—(AP)—Representative Reid Murray (R.) of Waupaca, Wis., charged yesterday that the reciprocal trade agreements program had injured agriculture, particularly the Wisconsin dairy industry and Wisconsin cheese.

Wells sparked the winners with a 471 series and 164 game, while Alice Murphy showed 157 and 435 for the losing five.

Kay Maulick and Vi Liesch each thumped a 459 series as Vi's Specials won two games from Sloppy Jo's. Hich for the losers was Marcella Plamann with games of 157, 160, 179 and a 496 series.

SPECIAL MATCH
Twelve bowlers defeated Twelve Corners in a special match at Vandenberg's alleys recently. The Freedom five spilled 2,706 pins against 2,566 for Twelve Corners. Ed Vandenberg paced the victors with a 297 game and a 578 total. Carl Greiner was next with a 210 game and a 577 series. Del Huss 493, Hank Schommer 532 and Frank Gerrits 526. For Twelve Corners J. Wenzel rolled a 208 with a 534 series. Frank Altman 509, Mike Green 505, Emil Brown 457 and Meltz cracked a 200 game and a 531 total.

One Is Beloved BY LOUISE PLATT HAUCK

see me for? Guess it can't be the same fellow. Save my shortcake for me, Sue!" He put down his napkin and disappeared across the hall. Sue heard his hearty greeting. "How're you, Farraday! But you'll want to see Sue!"
And then a low, rapid murmur that made her heart stand still. The children finished their meal and ran off to play. Sue sat staring at her untouched dessert until the maid sidled in to see if she might clear the table.
"What shall I do? What shall I do?" she whispered to herself. Her first impulse was to go boldly into the living room and interrupt whatever Eric might be saying. If she had only had the sense to do that at first! By now he must be half way through his revelation. Bob would not tolerate a break until he had heard it all. She went into the little study across the hall from the living room. Without hesitation her feet led her to the window where she could see the river.
Suddenly she threw back her head proudly.
"After all, what can he say? Only that I thought I loved him years ago; that I came back to Bob when I heard of the business failure; that I refused to listen to Eric in New York two weeks ago. Nothing to be ashamed of, nothing to disturb Bob!"
But she knew her husband's pride too well to console herself long with this thought. He would read in that frantic return, pity; and Bob would have none of pity. Sue tried to pull herself together. At best Bob would be angry, would be hurt. When he had heard her version, realized how even just in the last few days she had begun to realize how deep and warm her love for him ran, he would say: "Forget it, Sue!" and give her one of his tenderest kisses.
How long they were talking, Eric and Bob! What could even Eric find to say in all this time? Sue bent her head, striving to disentangle words from the angry rumble of Bob's voice. She would know how to deal with Bob's anger. But there was only the low, rapid murmur which meant that Eric was still talking. She shivered a little in the warm summer evening. Suddenly there was a new sound: the front screen closing quietly, almost silently. Eric gone at last, thank heaven! But how strange that Bob hadn't called her in before he left! There was — there was something ominous about the way she had been ignored from first to last in this visit of Eric's!
Continued tomorrow.

Farmers Seeking Armament Funds

Farm Bureau Federation President Says Group Will Fight

Des Moines, Ia.—(AP)—The suggestion that part of the money being spent in this country for armaments be used instead to increase appropriations for agriculture has been made by an official of the American Farm Bureau Federation. Edward A. O'Neal, president of the organization, asserted "we are going to stick to our fight for parity for agriculture on the basis that this is due the farmers as a tariff equivalent."

President O'Neal said the farm bureau does not necessarily advocate an increased budget or increased public debt to make possible higher amounts to agriculture. Instead, it favors a different distribution of funds available.

"We believe in reasonable amounts for armaments and munitions, but we do not favor arming on a warlike basis," he said. "The farmers would prefer, and they think they are entitled to demand in all fairness, that some of the funds recommended for building up our army and navy might better be used to compensate the farmer for his tariff bill."

O'Neal is here for a two-day meeting of presidents and secretaries of farm bureau organizations in 11 midwestern states. States represented are Ohio, Indiana, Michigan, Illinois, Wisconsin, Minnesota, South Dakota, Nebraska, Kansas, Missouri and Iowa.

SOMETHING WRONG

Bellevue, Neb.—(AP)—W. R. Patrick, attorney for the village of Bellevue, today said he could not make it out.
The village has $29,500 outstanding in paving bonds. But, Patrick said, there isn't a single yard of paving.

Christian Mothers At Hilbert Planning Card Party March 10

Hilbert — The Christian Mothers society of St. Mary's Catholic church will sponsor a "pillow case" card party Sunday evening, March 10, at the church hall. The usual games will be played, beginning at 7:30. Prizes will be given and lunch will be served.

The Neighborhood Schafkopf club met Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. George Kasper. Those having high scores were Mrs. Kenneth Corbett, Mrs. Adolph Olander and Mrs. Herman Behrke. St. Mrs. Gilbert Balabaner will be the hostess next week.

Mrs. Arthur Dopes entertained her five hundred club at her home Tuesday evening. Prizes were given to Mrs. Leonard Sitter and Mrs. F. A. Helz. The club will meet next week at the home of Mrs. Harold Delanty.

The Young Ladies Society of St. Mary's church held its regular meeting Monday evening at the church hall. Plans for a koro party in the near future were discussed. A social hour followed the business meeting. Prizes at cards were won by the Misses Marie Schafkopf, Veronica Schultz and Laverne Feck. Lunch was served.

About twenty-five friends surprised Mrs. William Volmer, Jr., at her home Tuesday evening. Prizes were won by Mrs. Gordon Christensen and Mrs. Mike Volmer. Mrs. John Volmer was the hostess.

Mrs. Eleanor Weire Hilbert, has accepted a position as secretary for Kruener Brothers of Forest Junction. She left Monday.

Delegates from 12 best who attended the mid-winter Republican convention held Monday at La Crosse were Herman Kops, Mike Kluender, Leonard Sitter and Herman Seelke.

AUDITS CITY BOOKS

The annual audit of the city's books and accounts is being made by William J. Schreck, certified public accountant. The audit will start this week and will be completed by the end of the month.

Harry Kops was the last Secretary of War of the United States.

Society Urges City To Restrict Parking

The St. Joseph Holy Name society yesterday requested the city to prohibit parking on one side of Lawrence street and Elm street during mass services on Sunday mornings. The society said about 3,500 persons attend masses on Sunday mornings and the double parking causes traffic congestion. Jerome J. Captain, secretary of the society, made the request.

Prizes were won at schmeary by Bernard Nelson, Mrs. Earl Reed, Mrs. Bernard Olson and Ervin Bruggen; at bingo by Francis De Groot and Mrs. Verna McCoy.

Regular Army Troops Will be Transferred

Washington —(AP)—Reshuffling of 7,500 regular army troops has been ordered by the war department as a part of its plans to improve training and quicken emergency mobilization.

No posts will be abandoned, the department said last night in announcing the changes, but 35 units will be transferred to permit closer groupings of the new "streamlined" divisions. As a result, headquarters of the new Fifth division will be located at Fort Benjamin Harrison, Ind., rather than Fort Sheridan, Ill., the war department said. The Fifth division's headquarters and its various police companies also will be sent to Fort Benjamin Harrison.

The Corp Five G's have a membership of 2,500,000.

DIDN'T UNDERSTAND

Meadville, Pa. —(AP)—A pedestrian captured a youth who attempted to rob a merchant, then found to his surprise the youth was armed. Larry Fessler said that while he thought the merchant cried the youth had a "garment," the merchant actually said he had a "gun."

"Now that's what I call good coffee"

How pleasant it is, after the breakfast rush is over and you are washing the dishes, to recall what your husband said when he took the first sip of his morning coffee...

"NOW THAT'S WHAT I CALL GOOD COFFEE!"

"If you want to serve coffee that will be praised, use Hills Bros. Coffee. It produces delicious results in any kind of coffee-maker. Just follow the directions on the side of the can and The Correct Grind does the rest."

TO MAKE GOOD COFFEE. Carefully observe timing for each method. Measure 2 level tablespoons of coffee to each cup of water. Vary water slightly for extra strength desired. Keep coffee-maker clean. IMPORTANT. Do not re-grind Hills Bros. Coffee. Re-grinding results in a loss of flavor, aroma, and freshness.

"Yes, I make Hills Bros. Coffee by the Drip Method. For perfect results the water must drip from 6 to 7 minutes to drip through the lower section. If the water drips through too fast, the coffee is weak."

"Hills Bros. Coffee is simply divine made in a GLASS VACUUM-MAKER. Put the upper bowl on after the water boils and keep the water in contact with the coffee for at least 5 to 7 minutes."

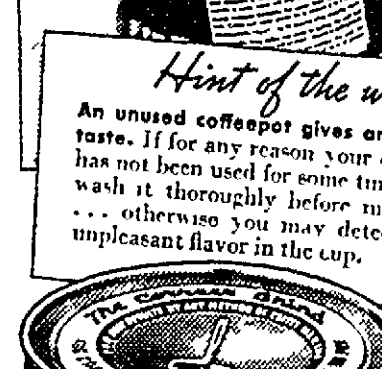

"There's no trick about making perfect coffee in a PERCOLATOR. Put Hills Bros. Coffee in the basket, start with either hot or cold water, and let it perk slowly 7 to 10 minutes after steady perking starts."

"Give me Hills Bros. Coffee made in my OLD-FASHIONED COFFEE POT! Bring the coffee to a boil and stir well. Then I add a little cold water, and move the pot to one side for 5 minutes to settle."

"You'll never be disappointed when you make Hills Bros. Coffee by the STEEPING METHOD. Pour boiling water on the coffee, stir well and cover. Stir again in 5 minutes. Cover and steep 10 minutes more."

Hint of the week
An unused coffee pot gives an unwelcome taste. If for any reason your coffee-maker has not been used for some time, wash it thoroughly before making coffee... otherwise you may detect a musty, unpleasant flavor in the cup.

Question Right of State to Pay Aids In Installments

County Officials to Consider Policy at June Convention

Post-Crescent Madison Bureau
Madison—The right of the state government to pay statutory financial aids to counties and other local units of government in installments will be before the annual convention of the Wisconsin County Boards association in Madison next June, A. J. Thelen, the association secretary announced today. He commented caustically on a policy begun under the Hoel administration.

Under the pressure of a reduced treasury balance, the Hoel administration last month paid out state highway advance taxes to the cities in three installments. On July 1 there will be a further payment of the state about $4,000,000 in county trunk highway taxes. According to the executive officer, that sum will also be paid in installments in July, August, September and October.

Of that sum, Thelen said today: "... A grave question arises with reference to the state's ability to continue to pay other aids during the period when the full amount of the county trunk highway aid has not been paid."

Question Arises
"... The question arises whether the state could pay on the first of August, September, or October, and due the counties for old age assistance, aid to dependent children, and blind pensions amounting as the previous certification of $4,400,000 from the state highway commission remains unpaid on the records of the secretary of state."

Thelen demanded that the legal question be settled by an opinion from the attorney general before the installment payment is attempted by the executive officer.

"If the counties' agreement to accept installment aid with the state would jeopardize the payment of other aids for an interim of three or four months, it is questionable whether in many counties of the state old age assistance, aid to dependent children, and blind pensions might have to go unpaid, in which event all federal aid coming into Wisconsin would be jeopardized due to the federal requirement that every county in the state must participate in these programs before federal aid is made available."

"It is one thing to attempt to prevent the breakdown of state government," Thelen said, "but it is quite another thing to prevent this breakdown of state government through a breakdown in local government."

Milwaukee Host To Skat Tourney

Wisconsin Skat League Will Sponsor Tournament March 3

The Wisconsin Skat league will hold its annual convention and skat tournament at the Milwaukee Eagles clubhouse Sunday, March 3.

A business convention of elected delegates will be held at 9:30 Sunday morning to elect officers and directors whose terms expire and select the summer tournament city.

The first playing session starts at 1:15 in the afternoon and the second at 5:30. A pre-skat tournament will be held at 8 o'clock Saturday night, March 2, at the Eagles club.
